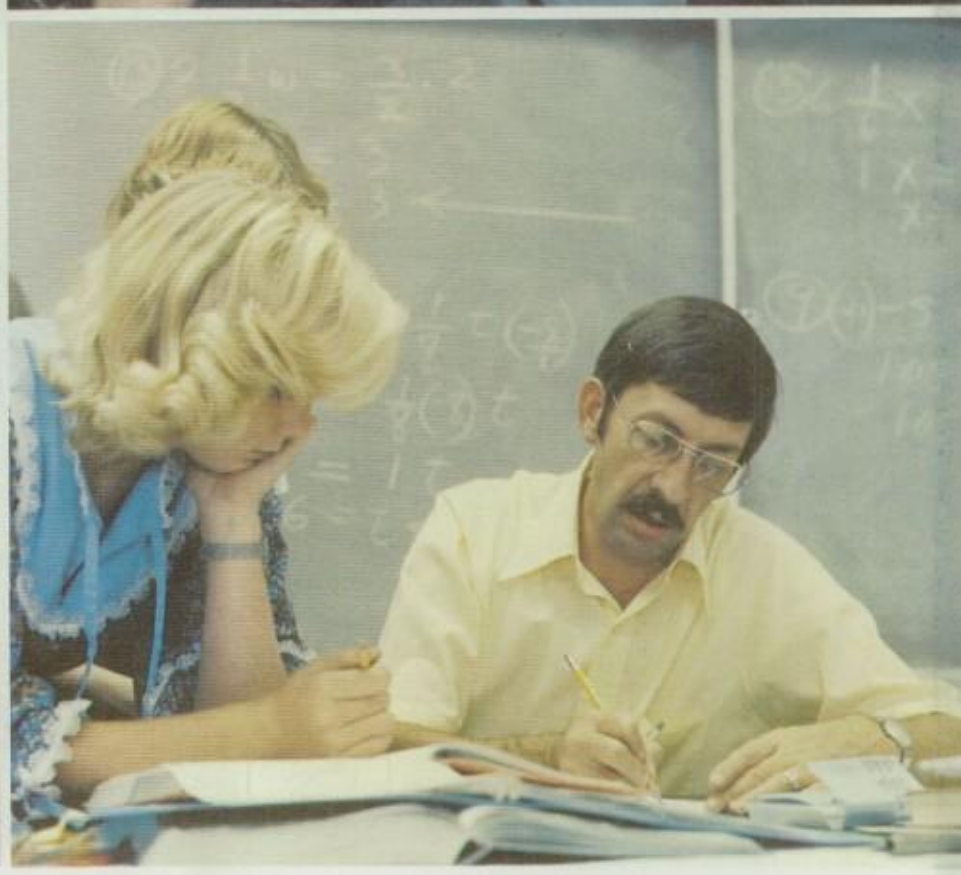
GOOD MORNING AMERICA

PARDON THE ANNOUNCEMENTS—rather the interruptions, teachers and students, the announcements will be in five minutes...

NOW FOR THE ANNOUNCEMENTS: You will need to be aware of the problem concerning the observation of the Utah Traffic Speed Ordinances. A mobile TV station, innocently disguised as an unmarked police car, will be patrolling the area. You need to be aware of that. Also, another problem has come to our attention—curling irons are being left in unmarked restrooms. If you are planning to leave them, please unplug them; Shirley will plug them in five minutes before class. Today's menu consists of multi-colored jello chewys, brown banana cake and meat surprise.

NOW FOR STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS: The Drill Team will be sponsoring the annual peel-off-the-boots contest. The number one peeler will receive a five-pound box of Osmints, courtesy of Osmond Studios.

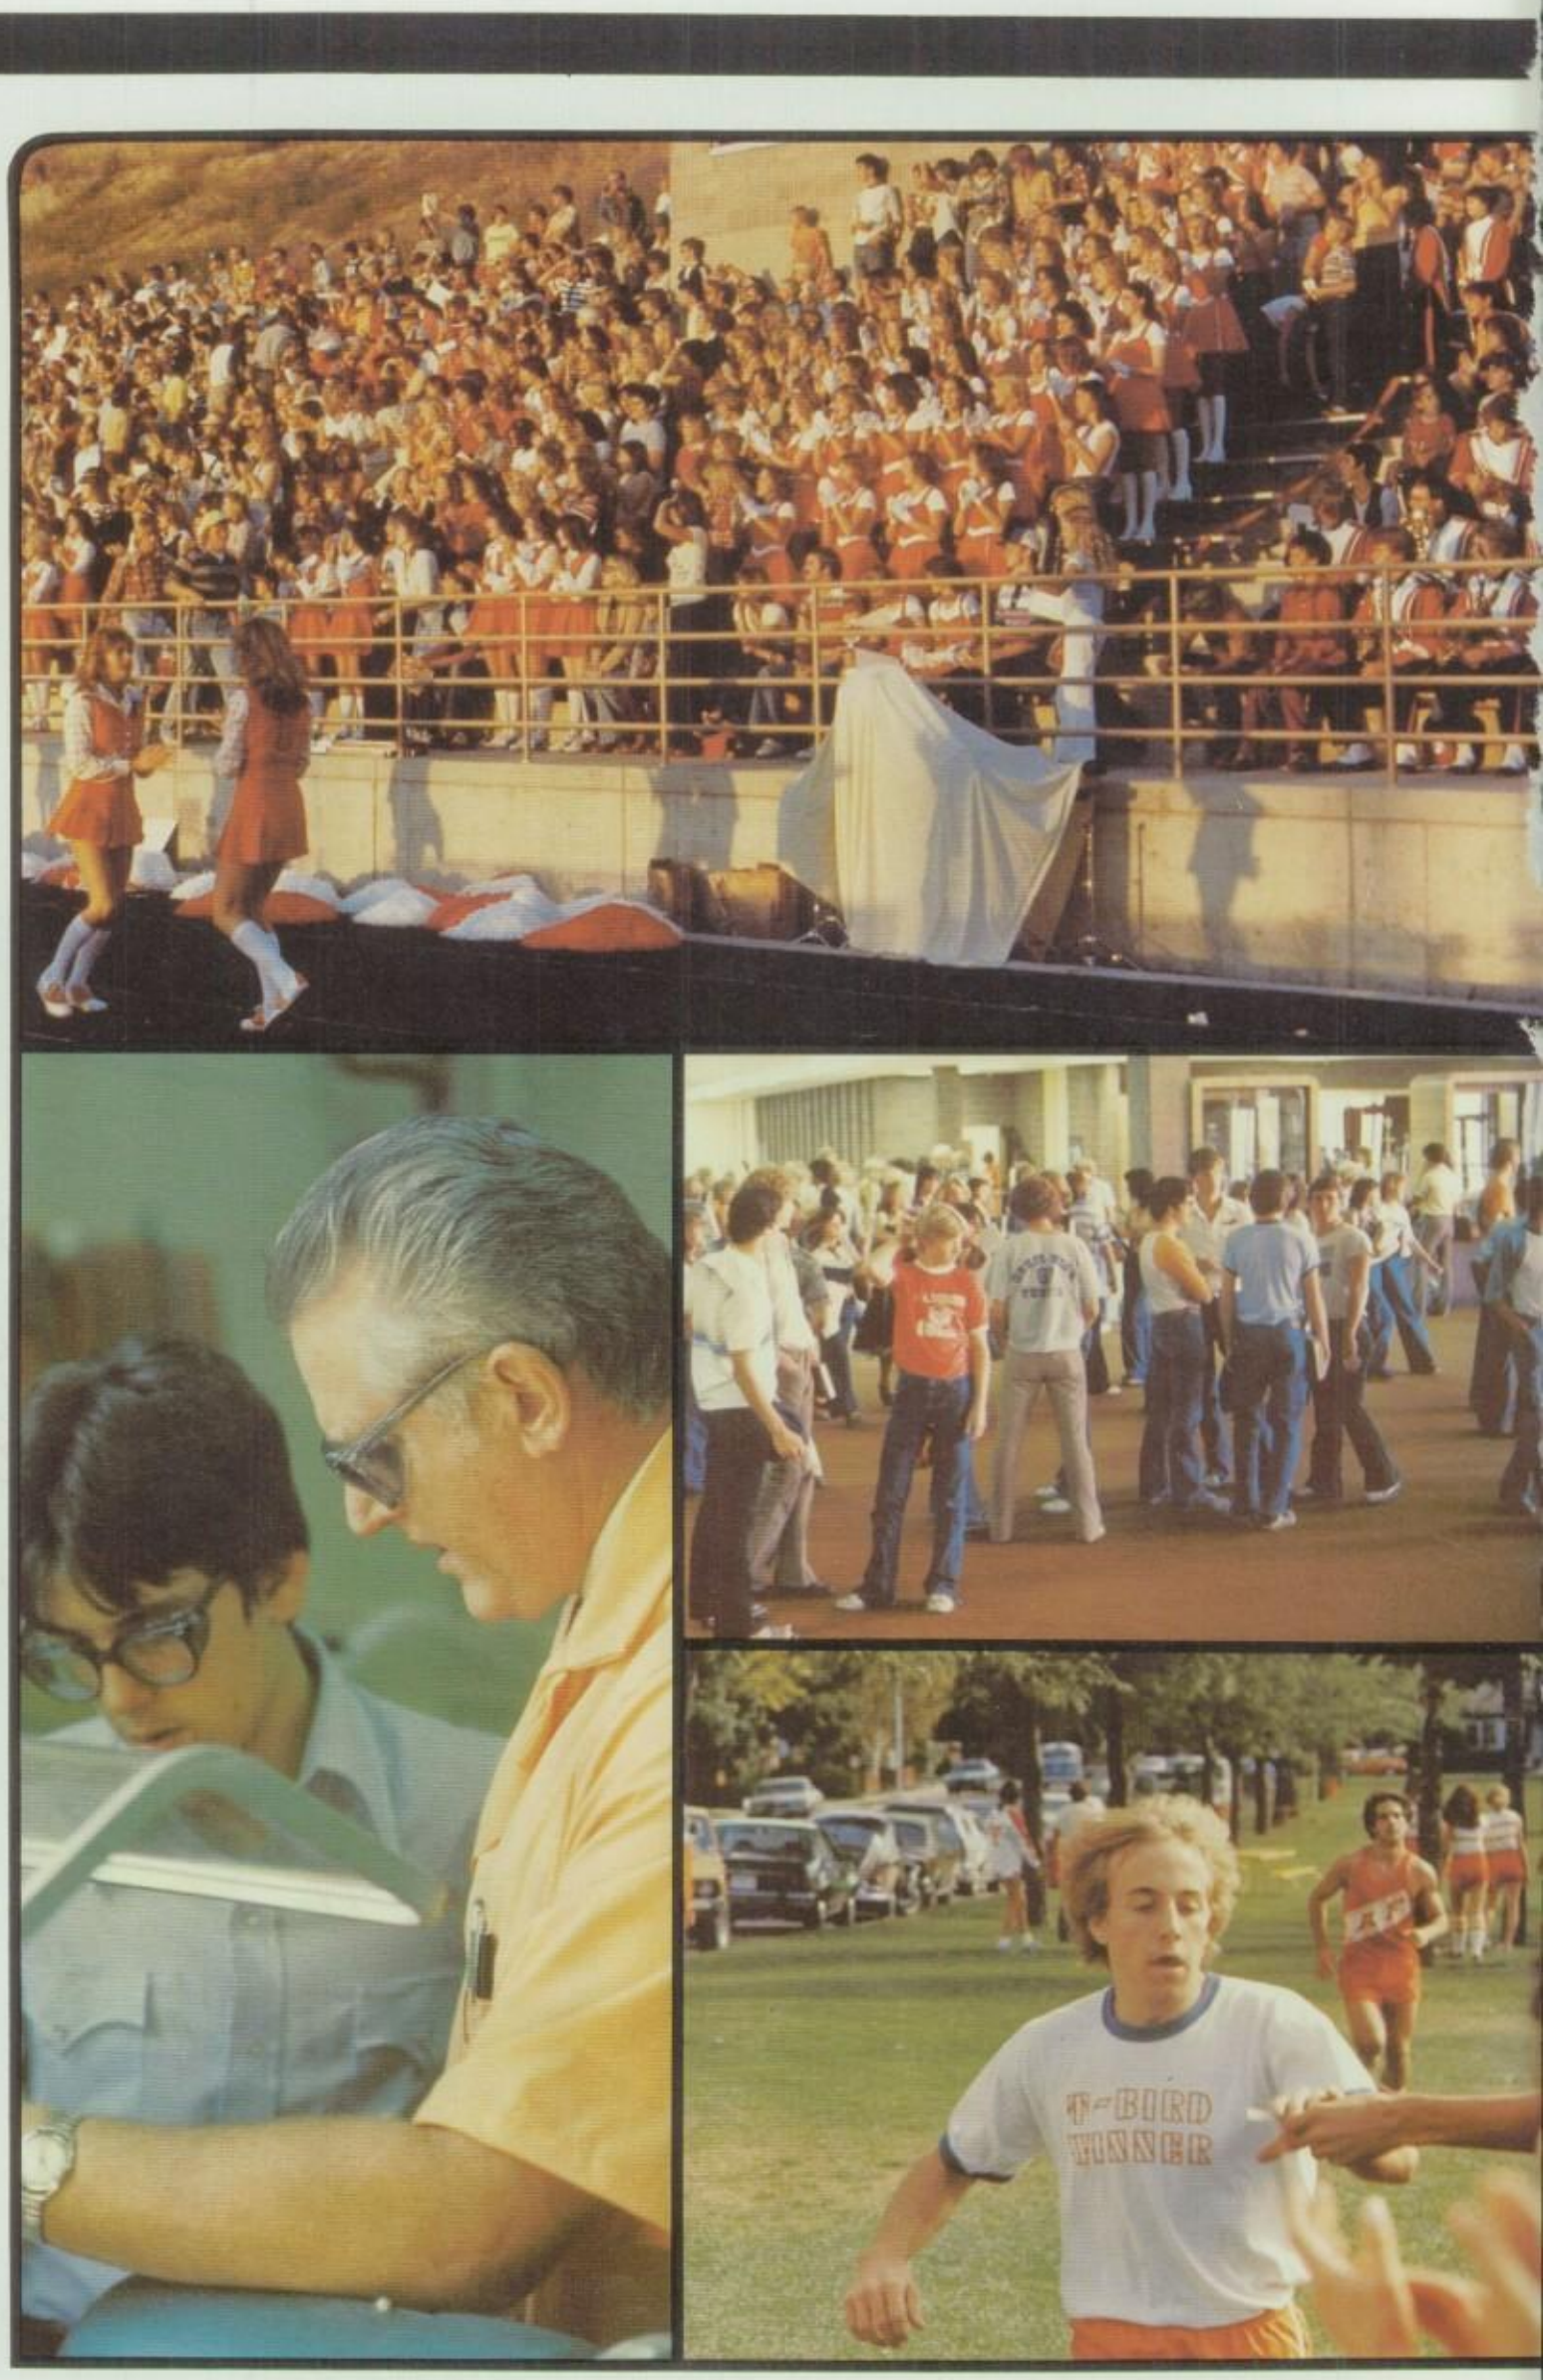


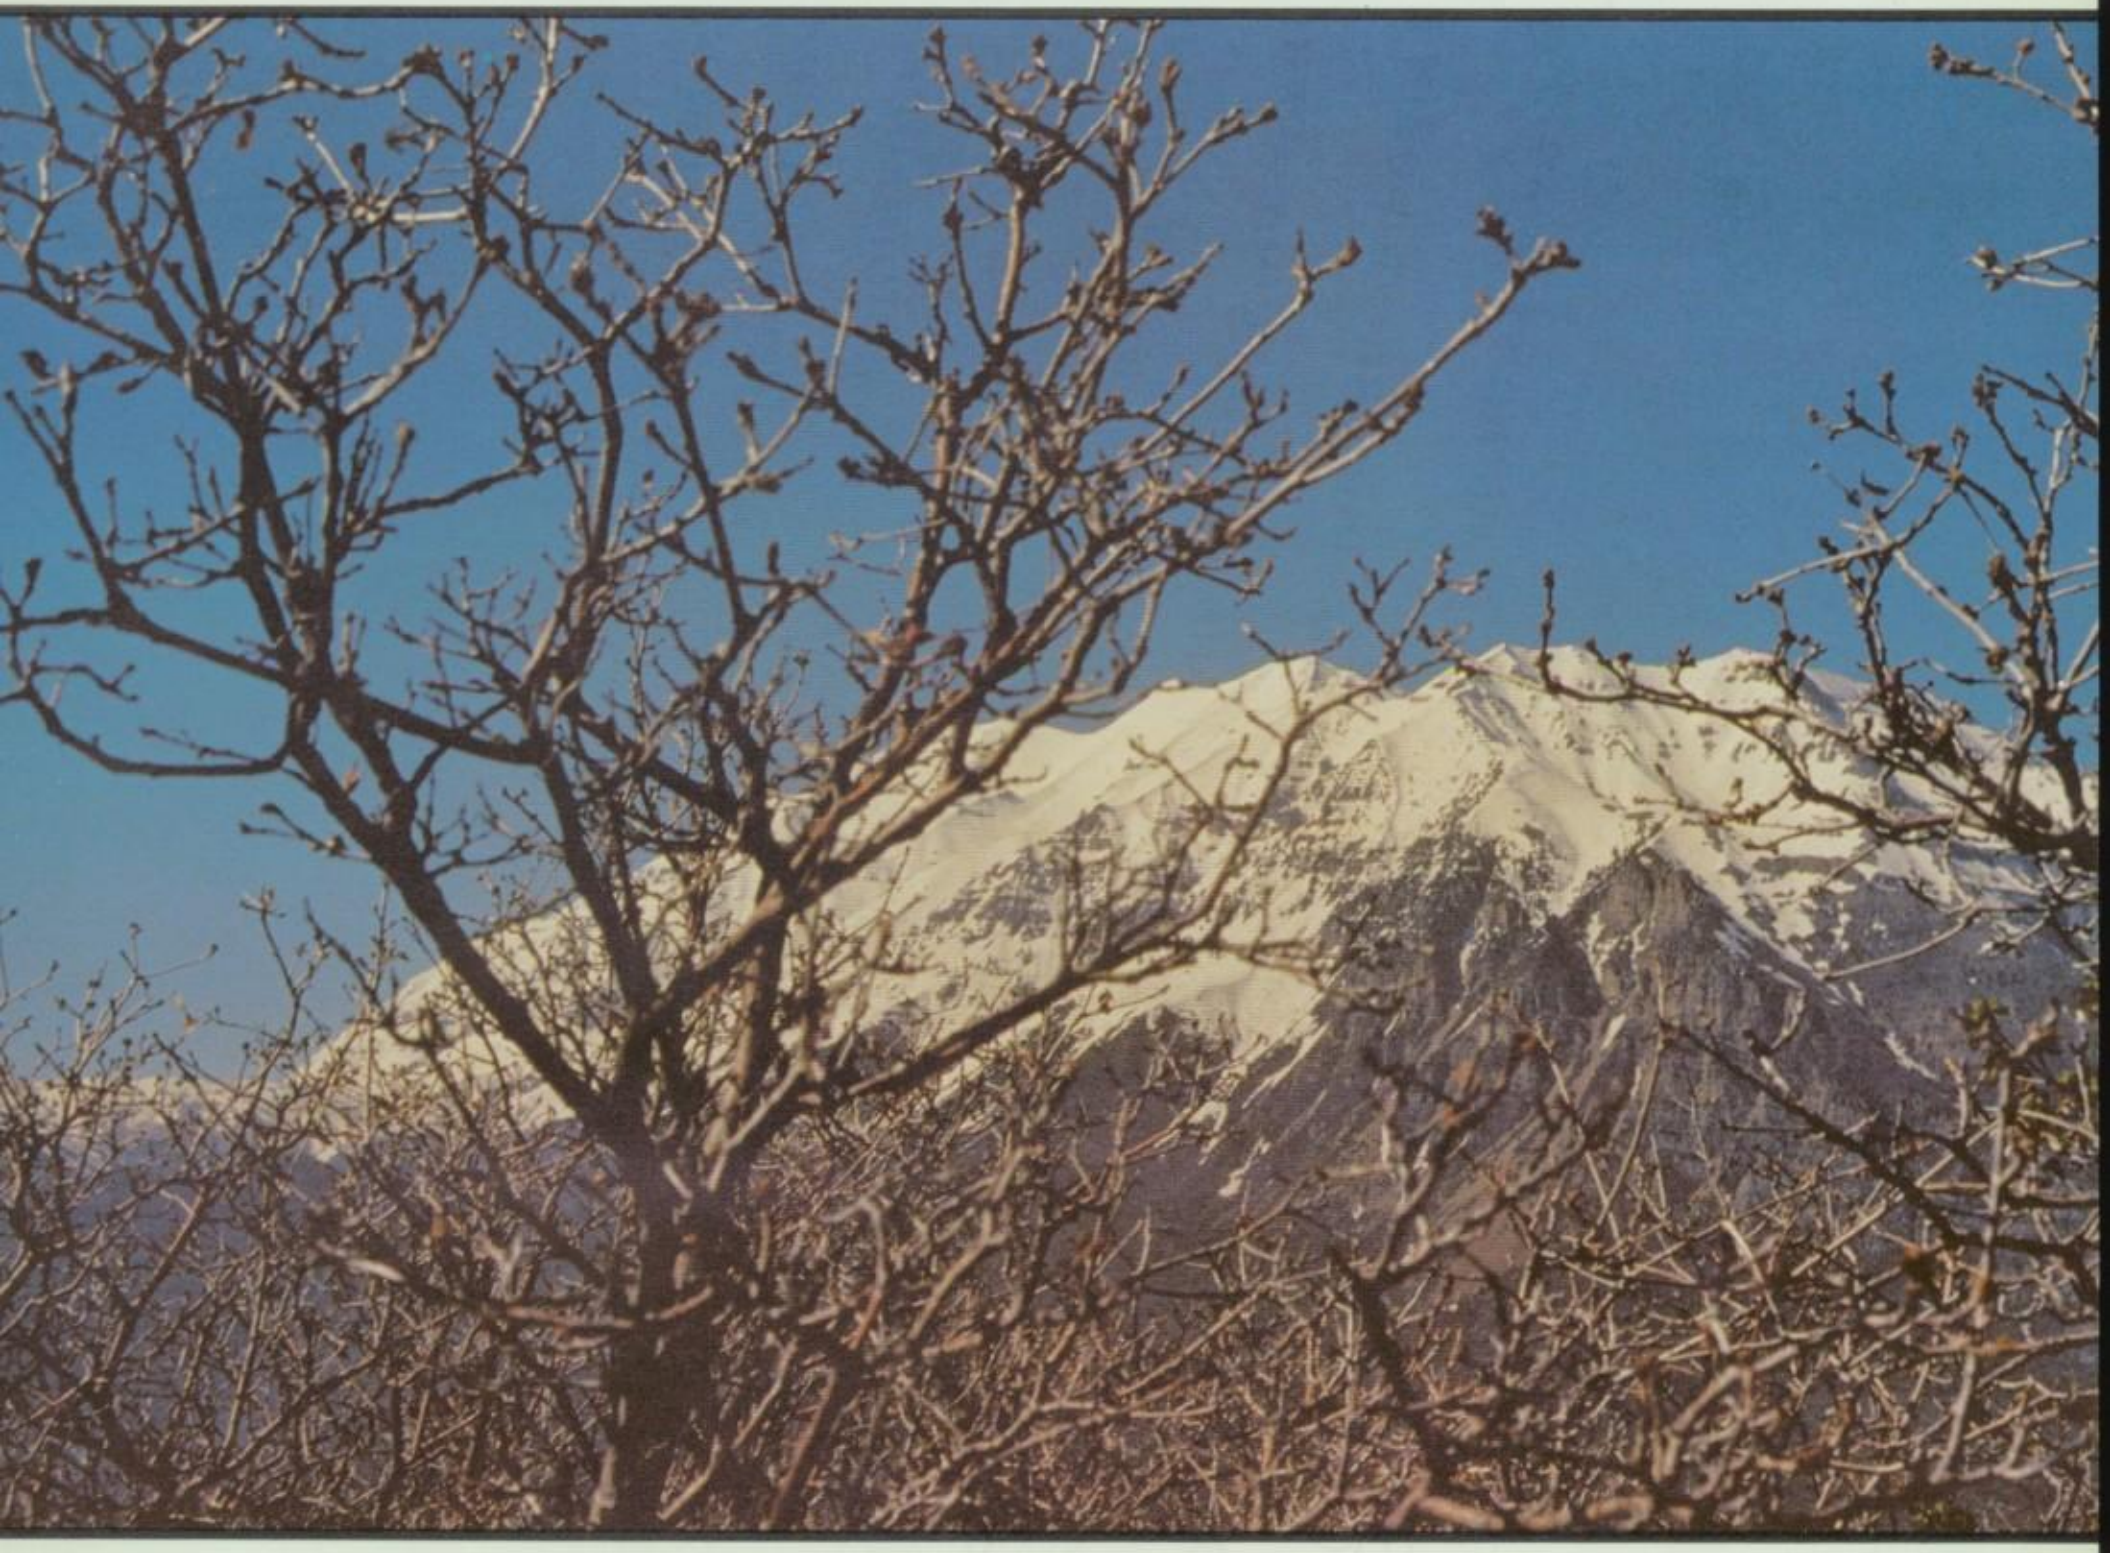
Paul you are a poor man and it was a great b-ball year keep playing alot and maybe someday you might be able to beat me

John N.

P.S. I hope you go to hell

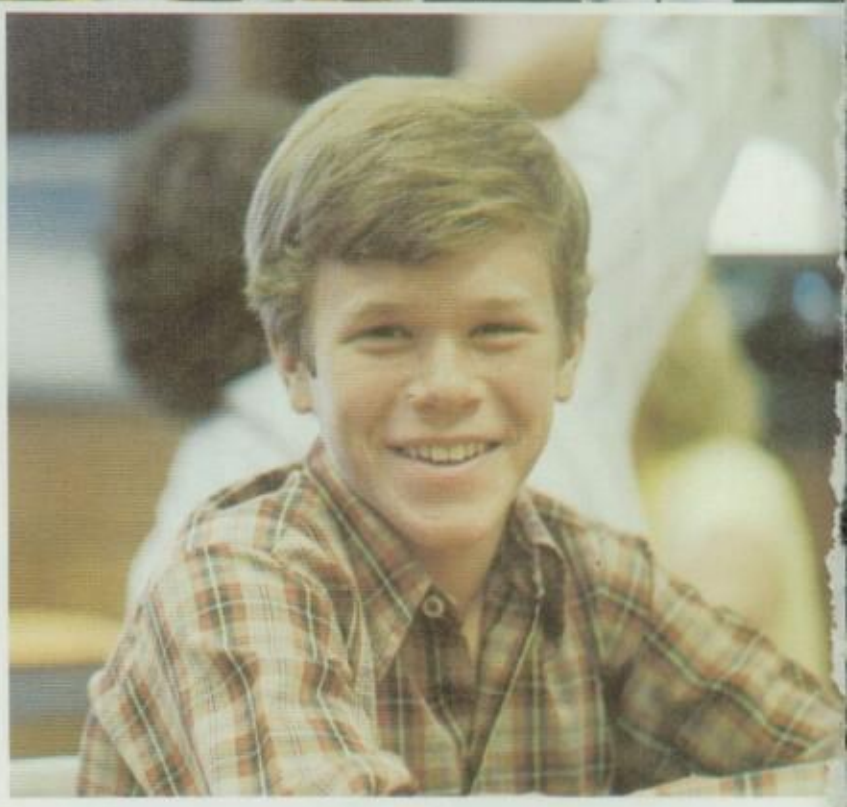
Dear Chuckeyes,
Hope you have a great summer take it easy and don't get into too much trouble.
Chad Bowers





Today on Today we feature Mr. Strong, the favorite competitor in the "I'm a little bit Macho" contest. He will be doing his famous Disco Here, Disco Dere Dance. Also on Today, we have four of the ten-most-wanted dinner guests from Timpview's runaway best-seller, "The Book of Lists." We have Mr. Hepworth with his hot-water bottle and lounge chair; Coach Martinez, who moonlights as a "sympathetic" ambulance attendant, "Good . . . you say your right knee hurts—you've still got your left one. . . get out there and use it;" and Mr. Burton who discovered the Fountain of Youth while drilling for oil, black oil; finally, the one who bridges the conversation gap between academic and athletic guests, Mrs. Bushnell, who can serve the dinner and keep the conversation volleying.

TODAY



Paul,
Its been such a fun
year and It went so fast
but I can't wait for summer.
I hope I can see you a lot this summer and we can have some classes together. have a great summer and don't get too dark. see ya around.

Romper, bomper, stomper, boo
Tell me, tell me, tell me do
What happened at the school, Timpview?
Magic Mirror tell me today
Did my friends have fun at play?

Oh, look, I see Mr. Gooch holding computer football practice. Oh, and there go Provo High Students sneaking in their green pigeons, too bad everyone is at class and can't see them fly to the ceiling. Oh, well, Mr. Anderson will store, or rather file, them under "P"...for P.U. Look, there is Julie Knell climbing the mountain, Oooooo she is repelling down the hundred-foot cliff. Oh woopes, she trips and sprains her ankle on her shoelace. Poor Julie. And I see that we owe Roger Layton a special thanks for waking up his class with his cricket alarm to...

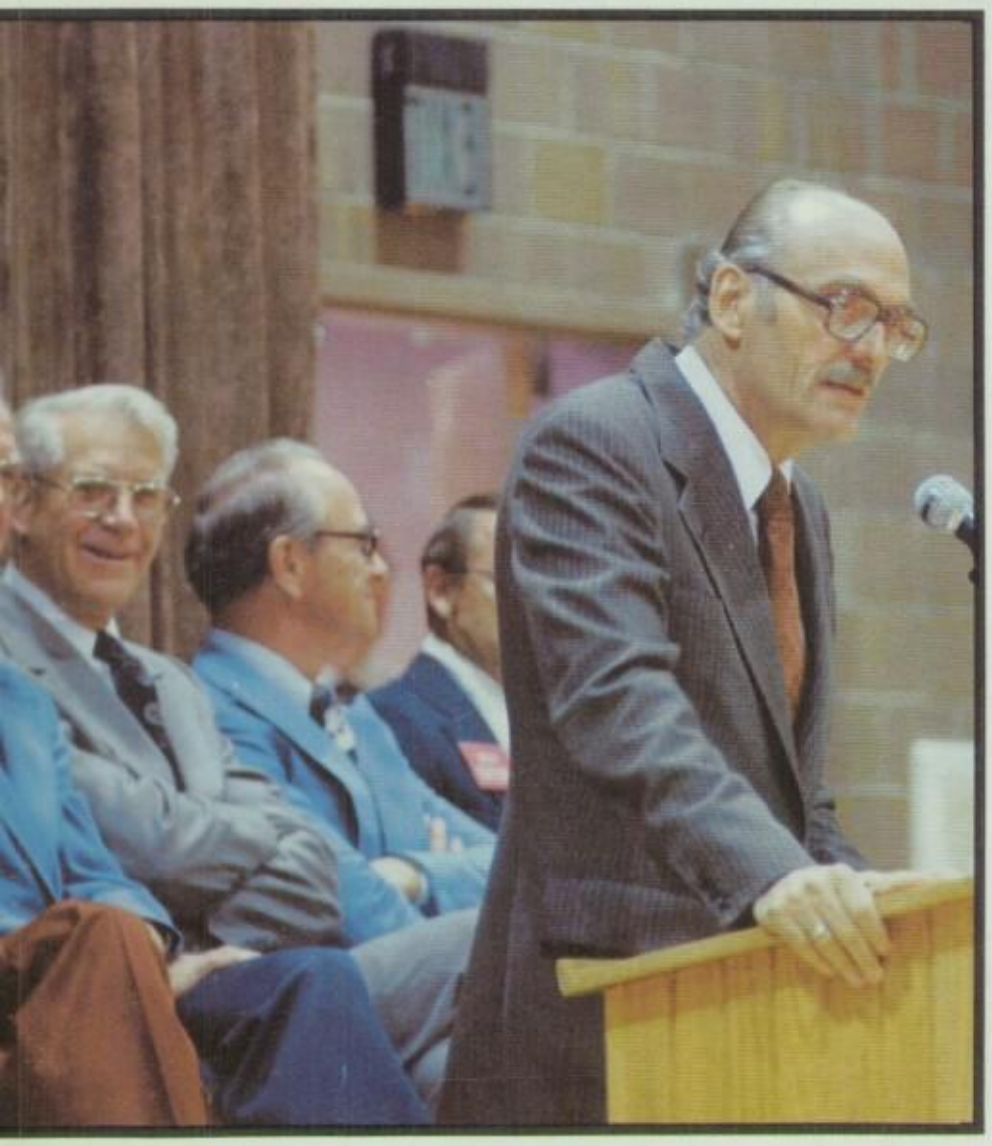
AMERICA



America Alive. And is Timpview ever alive. Take Co-ed P.E., for example, where the only touchdowns are made by girls because it seems, only normal boys and girls who look good in gym suits take the class. Just one question: Why is Coach Hales glad he isn't a girl? Confidentially, freshmen and Mrs. Blakesley hope birthdays fall on weekdays. "I'm jist sure!" They're teaching disco in journalism? We hope so because Mr. Brower, Mr. Moore, and Ms. Davis are enrolled. (Ch-Ch do-dad).

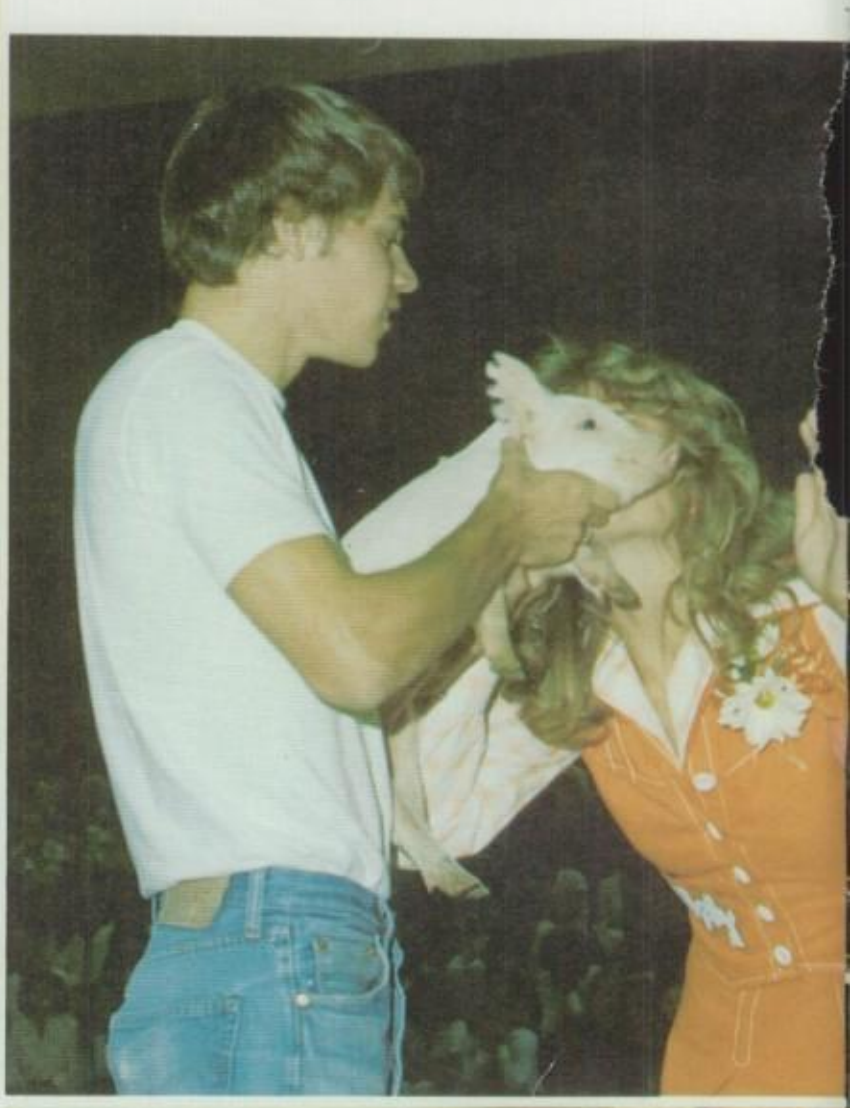
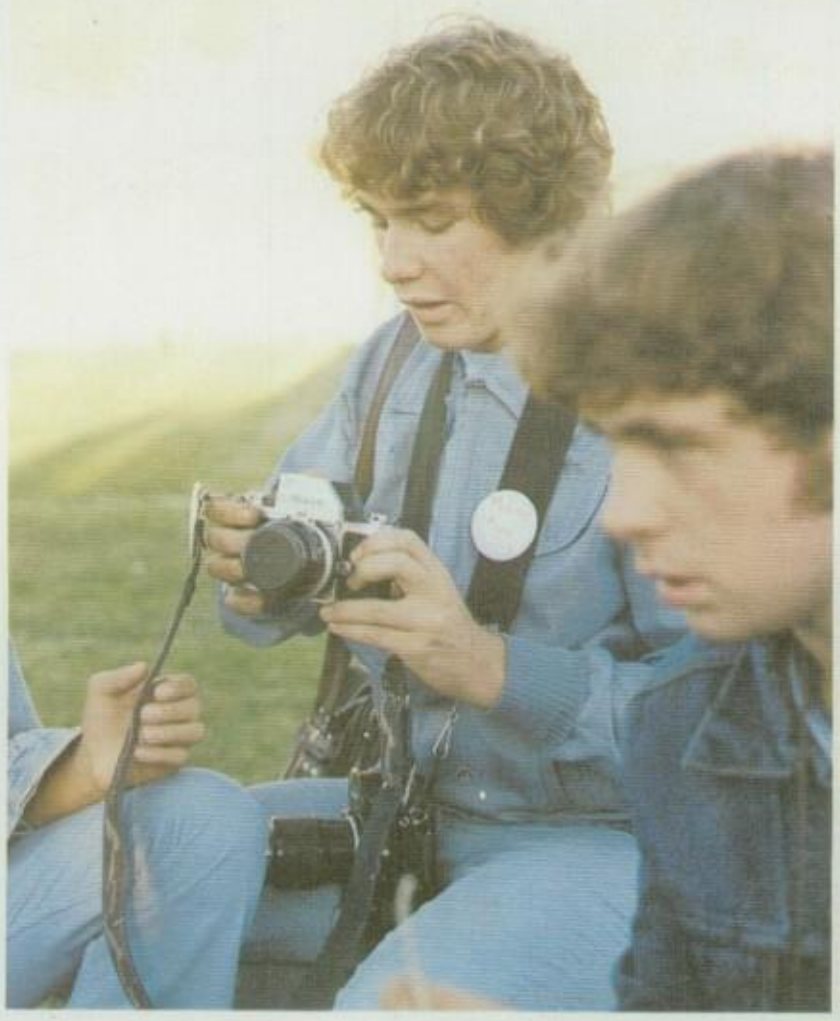
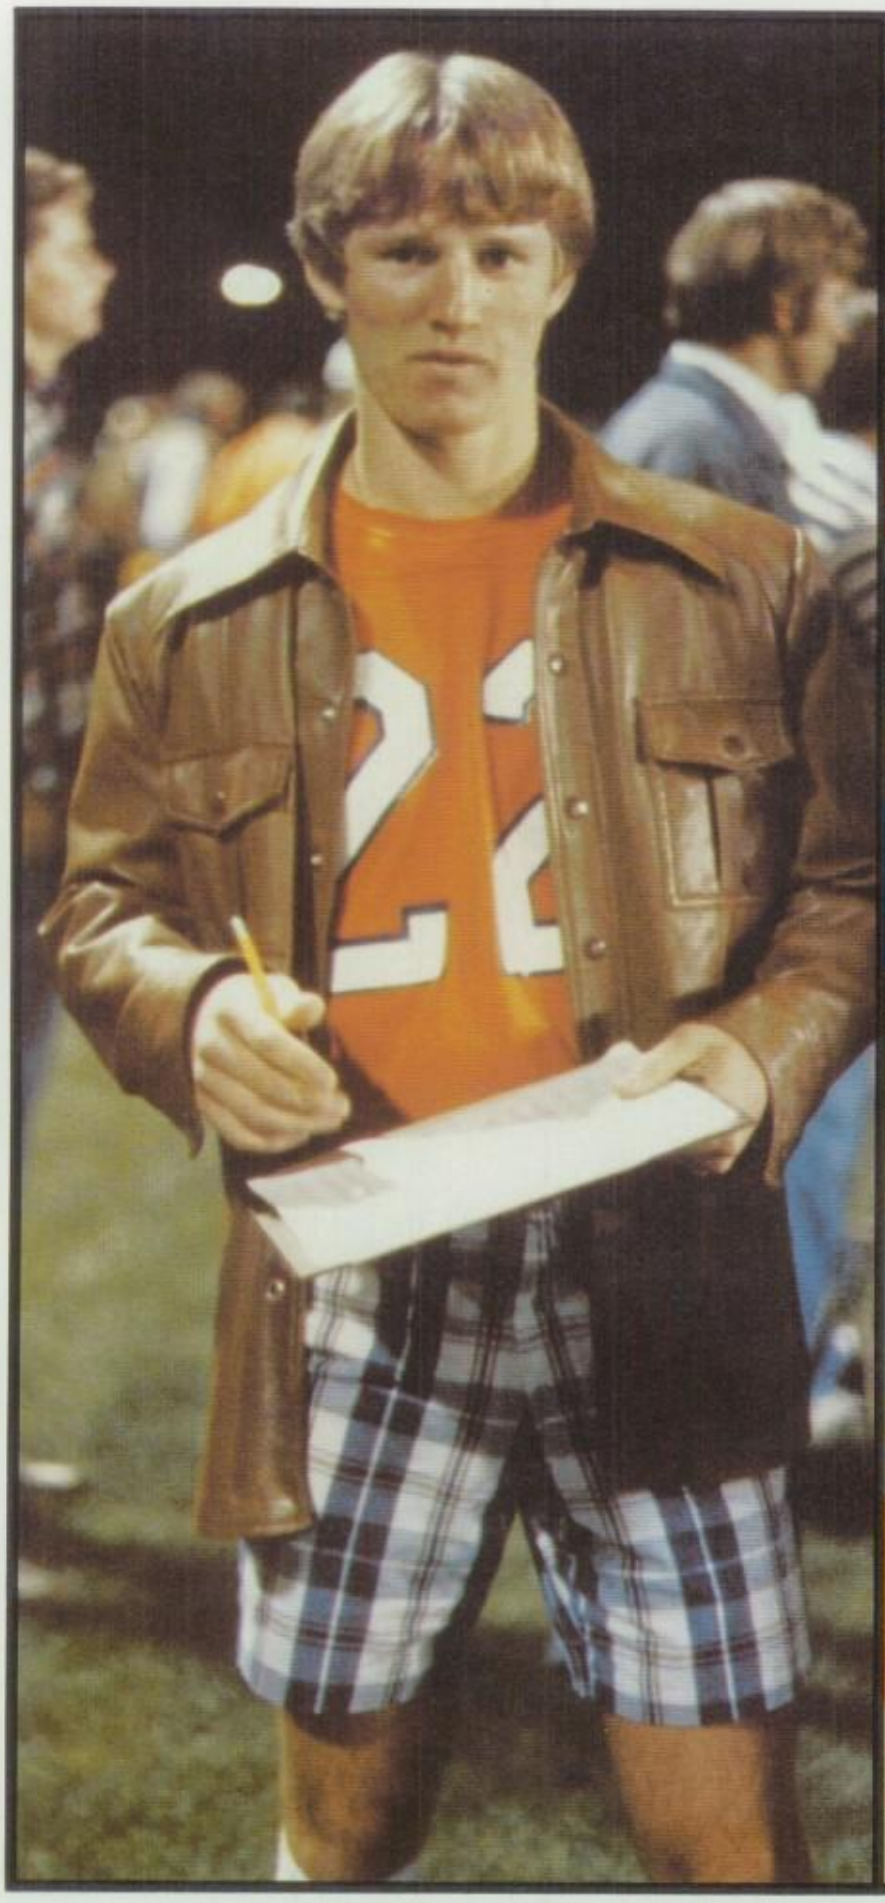
FACE

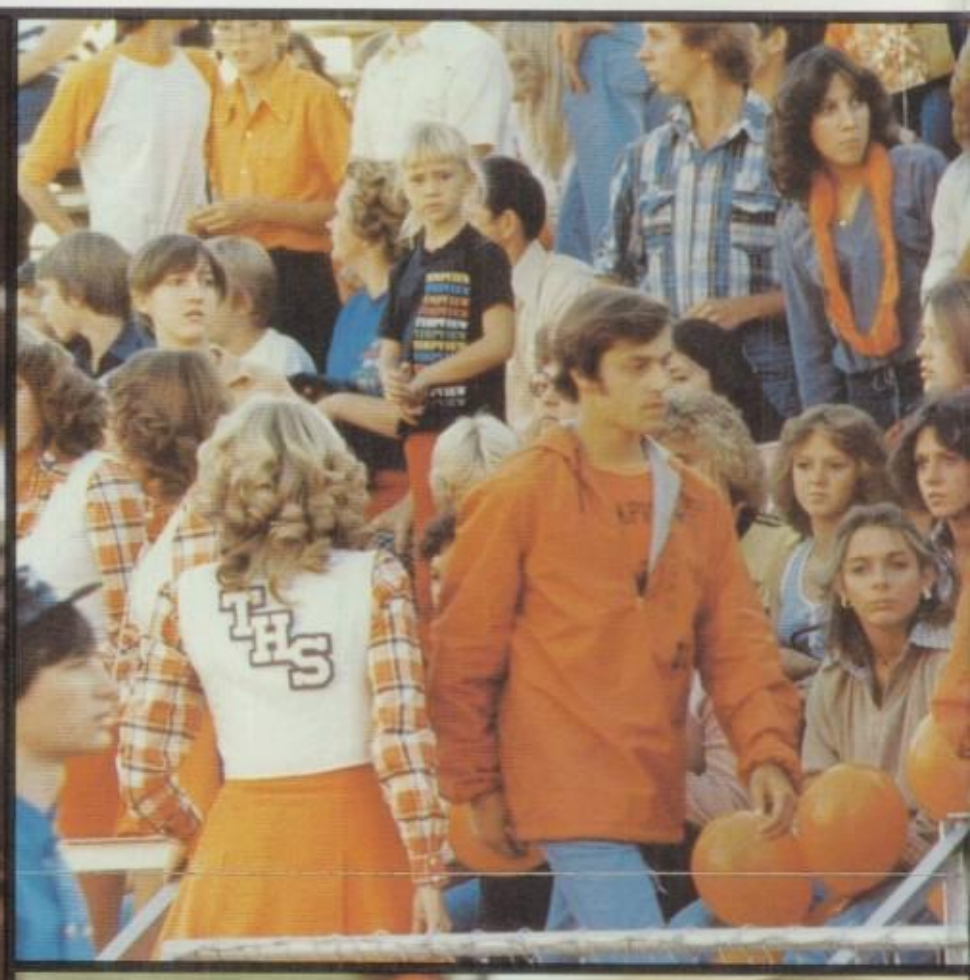




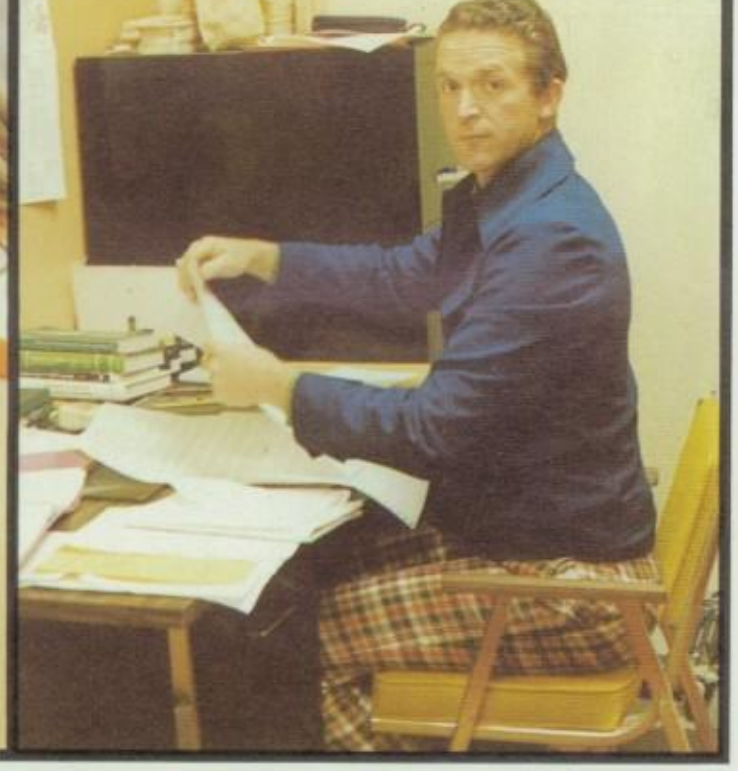
TO FACE

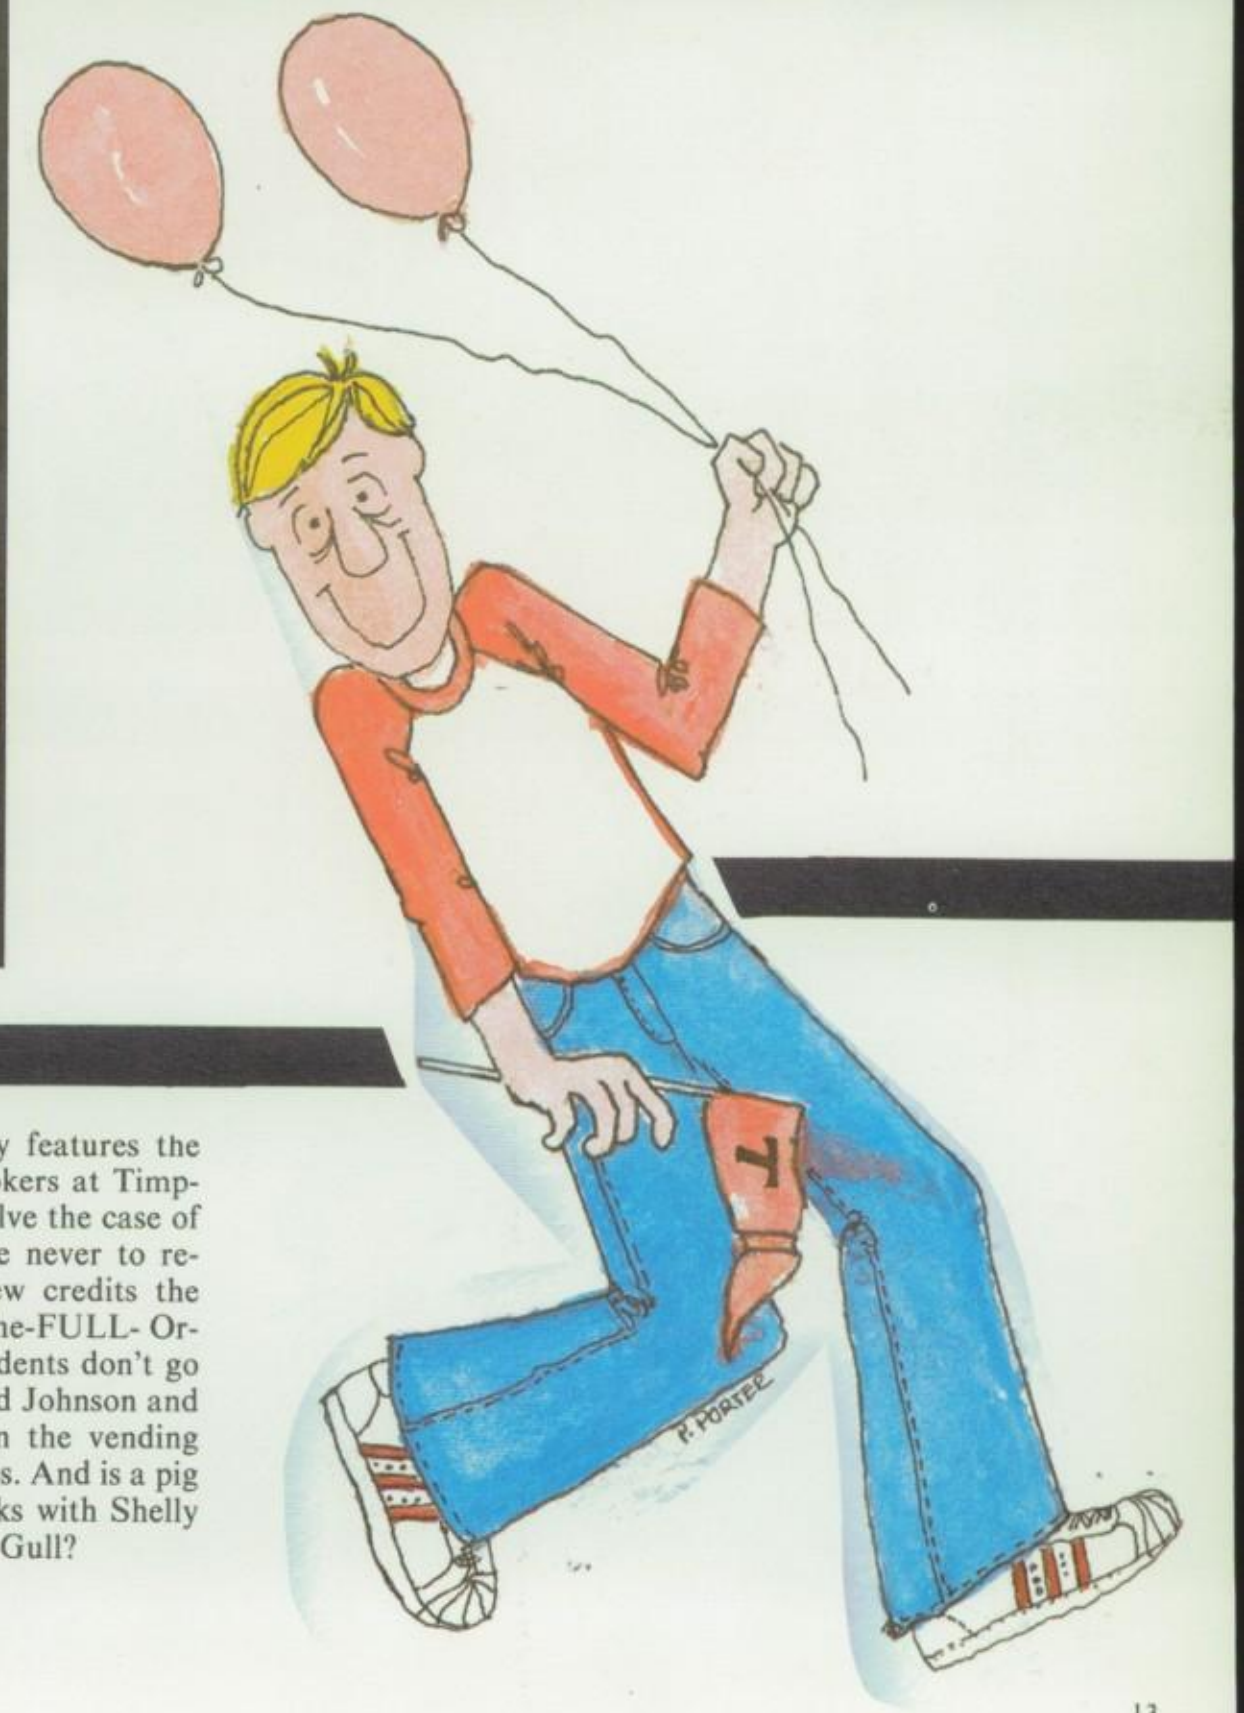
The issue today on Face to Face is fashion fads at Timpview High School. According to popular opinion, "straight-legged levis" rolled up are the ultimate in "bush" (a common term for dumb or not of an original nature). Girls who think they need to "frizz" their hair like everybody else ought to stay away from light sockets. And definitely "not macho" is anybody who would wear surgical pants to school; these people have a serious problem surgery won't correct. For boys, "Lee riders" were replaced by "Low riders,"and T-shirts under shirts—extremely muddy! Cute girls are advised not to worry about a thing; they can wear what they want. The not-so-cute? Don't waste money on clothes.





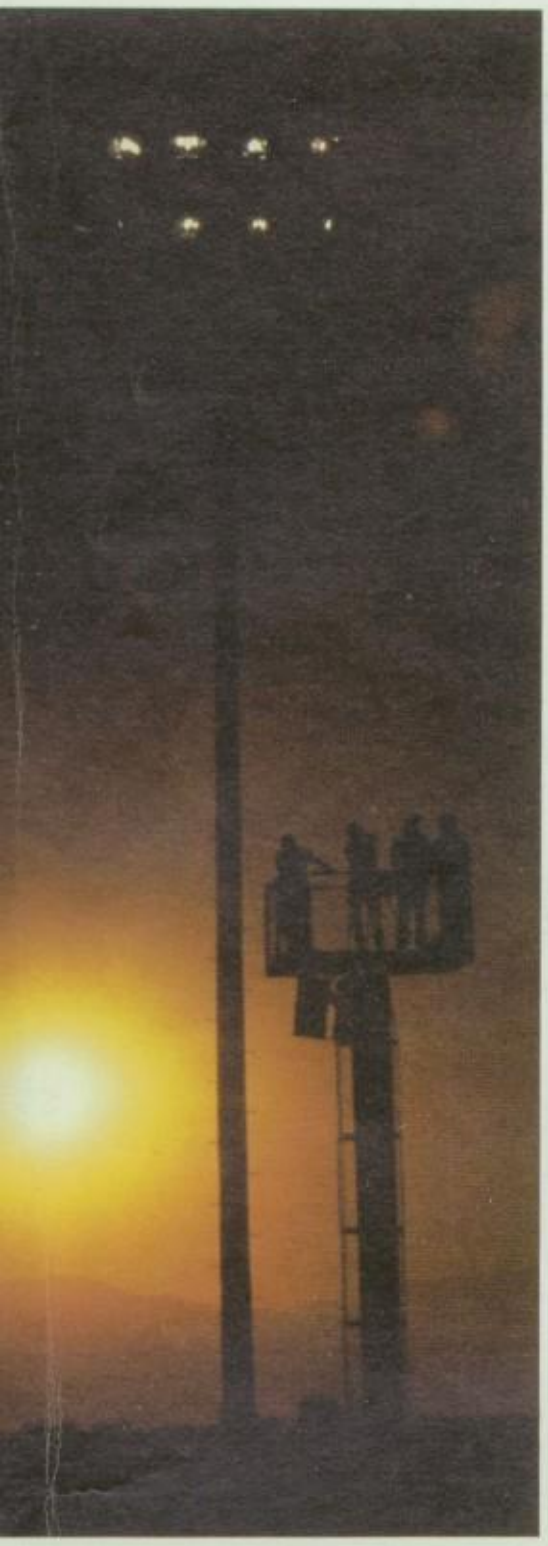
JOKER'S WILD





Certainly more than one hour daily features the Joker's Wild or is it wild and crazy jokers at Timpview? Holmes and Yo Yo pair up to solve the case of Hadden's "Invalid" dialog, "I promise never to repeat," as Watson stands by. Timpview credits the freshmen with the new improved kick-the-FULL- Orange-Crush can. "Get real," frosh; students don't go for those splits in one easy lesson! David Johnson and Brad Harward have been stationed in the vending machine area to supervise such activities. And is a pig a bore? Not at Timpview when it ranks with Shelly Jackman. Where does that put Kevin Gull?

ONE LIFE TO LIVE



Knowing there's one life to live, will we ever be able to answer these questions? Will Steve Bearnson disregard females until after his mission? Will Kelly Hansen decide which of the 16 prospects will become No. 1? Will Lance Romance, alias Kevin Gull, finally make a kill? Will Ron Baird ever stick to his own lawn? With shoes and socks in one hand and dress in the other, will Peggy Myers be dressed on time? Will Mami Kocherhans realize her own strength, especially after the injury she sustained when she tried to tackle a football player? These questions and more right after this...

REMINISCING

"We'll go dancin' in the dark, walkin' through the park, and REMINISCING"... Timpview's very first Homecoming began this reminiscing with the Alumni's sequel to last year's assembly, "Good-Bye Friend," authored by Andrea Knell. Todd Ashman, supposedly mature now, was still easily recognized by his blue thongs, those previously worn at Timpview's first Commencement, '78.

In the evening the T-Bird Squad sparked a 31-13 victory over American Fork Cavemen. Thrilling Homecoming fans with an 81-yard touchdown pass to Eric Magleby was Kimball Lundahl followed with a sensational 95-yard kick-off return touchdown by Dahl Downing, Wow!

Culminating a successful week, the Homecoming Dance spotlighted royalty Michelle Linford, Lori Pinder, and Natalie Parkinson.

ROYALTY

When given a choice between Vandermeide and the girls' tea, many students felt that they deserved equal rights. During the tea and fashion show for the girls, the boys were entertained with visions of people acting like sugar plums dancing through heads.

The casual "style" continued into the dance where disco and gold shoes mixed with cover-"alls", and fraudulant marriages. Some people unknowingly spiked the punch when they were putting litter in its place.

CRYSTAL CHRISTMAS

Timpview's "Crystal Christmas" found merry mistletoers maneuvering among the masterpieces...or in other words dancing cheek-to-cheek out of necessity...at Springville Art Museum.

Inside those hallowed walls among the coat-draped statues, Xanadu played...for the masses and for Bryan and Jennifer out on the "locked" patio.

Mark and Michele helped Santa squeeze in one more festive appearance and reported his departing words, "Merry Christmas to all," and to Levicka, better luck next year."

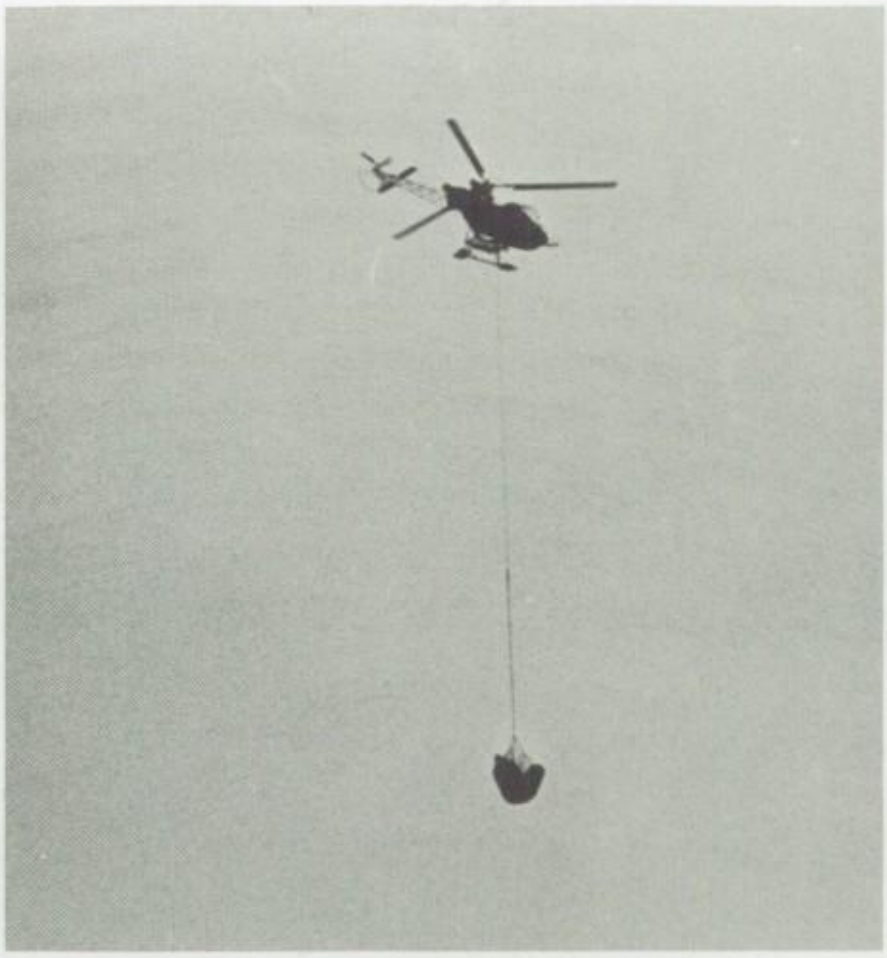
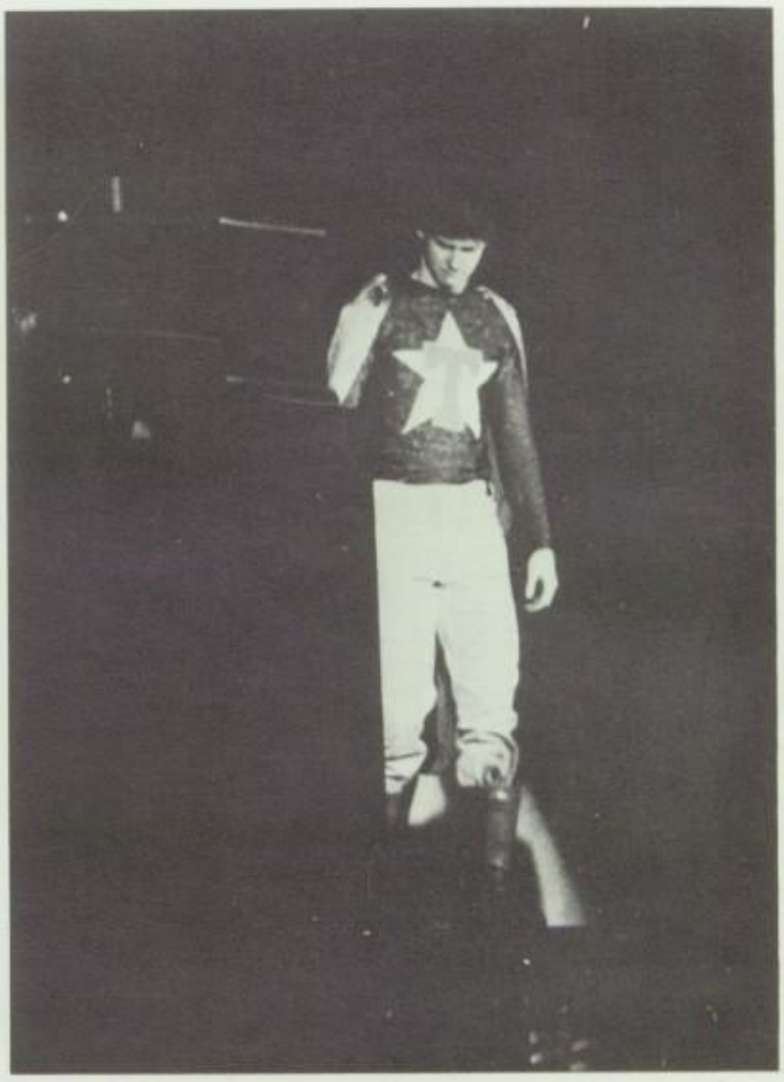
Scooby's All-Stars



Tempview Stars

Not even "Madge" could have soaked out the dyed hands of many Timpview students as they prepared for Star Week. Some wondered what caused so many cheerleaders to give up their baby, soft hands. . . it was school spirit! Together cheerleaders, student government, and many more Timpview stars worked for weeks to collect, dye, and sew hundreds of sheets, but even after the last seam was sewn they couldn't rest. The next job was to fly the 800 lb. "T" high onto the mountain over Timpview where the whole city could see that once again Timpview was everywhere. But this was just the beginning, even when the "T" was covered by a snowstorm the stars kept on going. Everyone was a Timpview star and there were many activities during the week, concluding with a star assembly.

Come fly with me.



Winners pick a winner.

Quality, our way of life.

Frosh Assembly

I'm a little bit what?

It's a living.

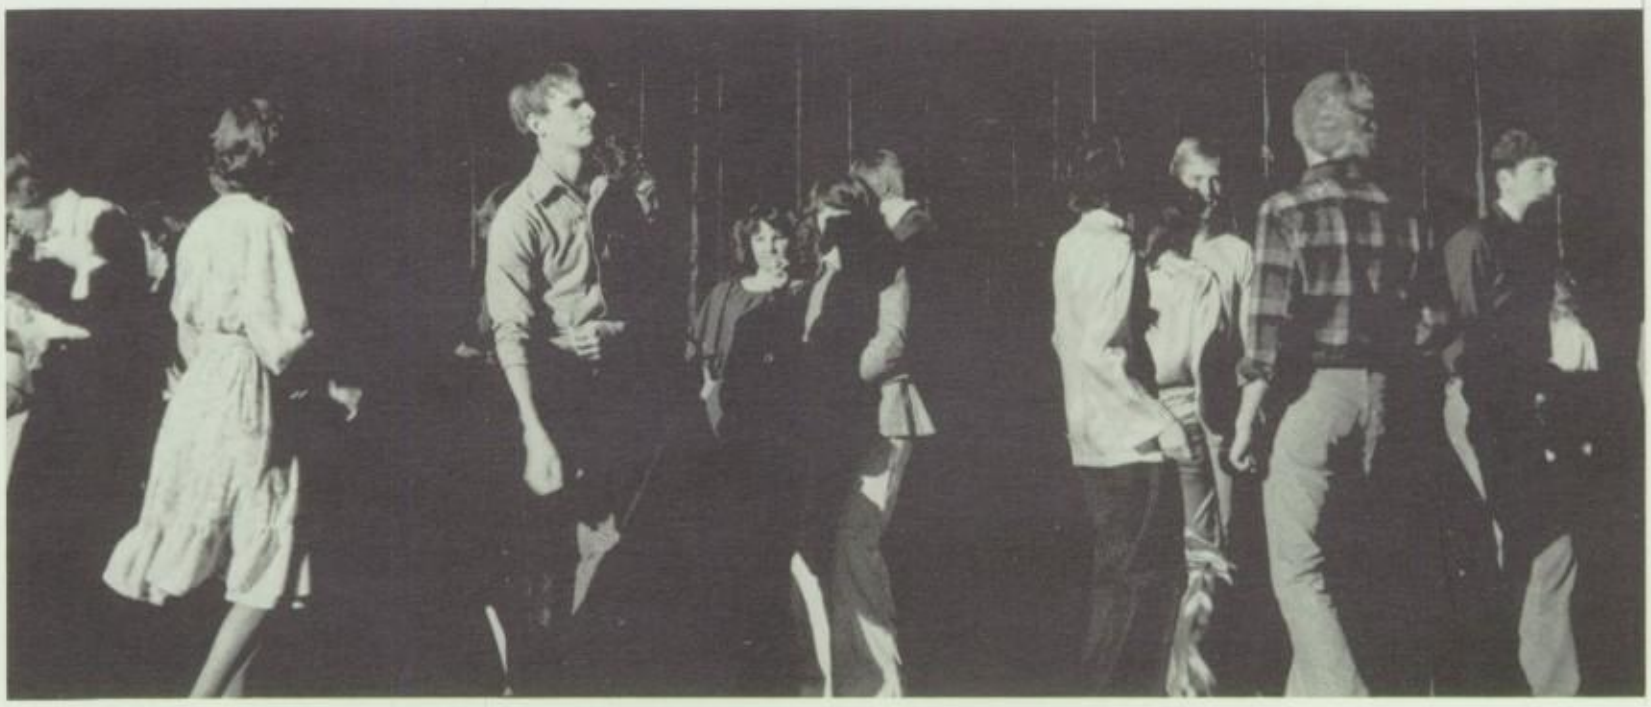
Sandra, I'm not going to apologize for my looks anymore.

Good morning! Welcome to Friday Morning Live. From Barbra Wawa's first line, it was obvious that the only thing bad about the Freshman Assembly was that most of the students couldn't see it.

The audience was entertained by such guests as Super Sump (who was really Sumsion), The Bird Nerd with his little black pigeon, and a rock singer who spouted off with a unique striptease. Of course, who could forget the special guests Donny and Marie who stole a large portion of our hearts.

Able to leap small buildings in a single bound!

Orville's Hope



Orville passed a crucial test by asking Sue to the Snowflake Ball.

"You forgot to check it out."

Orville wondered what Dan had that he didn't have.

"I'm neat and everybody knows it."

Orville and Dan had something we all liked, lots of laughs and lots of dancing. Contrary to popular belief disco has not been completely wiped out in Provo as shown in the Sophomore Assembly. Everyone got a few ideas from the movie "Ten Steps to Easy Dating" (especially fathers of Boy Scouts). The Snowflake Ball brought out everyone's best moves.

Resolved Future teams will continue to uphold the unprecedented standards achieved by the 78-79 Forensics Team.

Team's varied talents continually tallied top scores, but tragedy struck with the "passing on" of Mr. Moore's van. Boxes were left in the open, a constant reminder to the managers and therefore the team members to go back to work (a real tragedy).

As previously mentioned, the team remained energetic, so much so, in fact, that "jaw" rastics, Steve Martin imitations, and "cute" little poems on the board replaced the former mental gymnastics. A question was raised: "Is the debate room ever abandoned?"

Still, the high point of any members' life is a forensic trip (although for some they are a bad trip). A counterpoint, however, the trips inspired the debate uniform: beltless Levi chords, Adidas, and a UCLA T-shirt.

In conclusion please recall the previously mentioned prints which prove that a debater in full uniform carrying three or four friends' boxes across strange campuses is extremely ro—mantic!

Shelly Thomas and Donna Black were on their own.

Oh, those wild forensics parties!

The most glamorous advisor in the school, Angel Farrah-Frosted-Major, operates out of Omega. If Omega is a well-kept secret, it's because Debi Severe, the reporter in charge of advertising, never gets any phone calls.

To their convention in Seattle, the FBLA took their own Casanovas—Rick, Richard, Rod, Andy, Greg, and Carl. Within a day they had every girl there hypnotised waiting on them hand and foot. (I mean breakfast in bed!) When will the phone calls end?

DECA planned a great party. Three 16-inch pizzas, three half gallons of ice cream, and a keg of pop. Only five people showed up. At least the janitors were filled. . .to capacity.

HONOR SOCIETY

T'was the night before deadline and all through the room
Every creature was stirring full of dread and of gloom
Pages were flying all over the place
And, oh, what stress covered Miss Peterson's face.
Carol, in panic, was a worrysome sight,
While the staff kept on working way into the night...

Timpview Talons tangled cord, too much cord — this year's calendars with wrong dates, tooo many cheerleaders triple checking proofs, tooo many staff members saved by the bell, wrong number "programed" spiritual yearbook. AND would the "real deadline" please show up!

Roger Layton, you have to be young to get away with that.

Our People Make The #1 Difference

Yearbook photographers left to right: Zack Bigler, Kent Wallace, Steve Olsen, Steve Heiner, Eric Peterson, Nathan Anderson.

Editor, Carol Layton; Assistant Editor, Jennette Palmer.

You take my stomach and I'll take yours.

The Paper Chase

Everyone knew the problem; Stacy knew the solution.

Geri give your dad a distinguished name; he gave you one.

Ron Baird, don't be a nicker, be a flicker.

For Sue Peterson the choice was obvious.

Tired Matron Rides Herd On Thunderbolt

Five cents.

TVHS, 1978-79. In the beginning, the teacher approached class with desire to impart fundamental knowledge to students. Instead, Confusion and Disorder were created in the likeness of Journalism I, Timpview High School, 1978-79. Exhaustion and Distress transformed Mrs. Blakesley into a tired matron, eager to have Ron Baird take over reins of herd. Her only request became a plea for Praise and Satisfaction in the form of Respect and Money thrown directly at her.

Paul, I'm really glad
I know you
you are a really neat guy and a cute one too!
I really like you and I'm glad you're in my ward!
Have a good
Summer and Stay out of trouble. Love

I was so glad to be able to get
to know this year.
You are so fun to watch in sports. Stay as good and cute as you are. I love your eyes! Maybe I'll see you around. Hope
so. Kathy

GUIDING LIGHT

Paul -
You have got to be the #1 fox of the school and you still have quite a few years left at this school. Don't let all the women mauled you. You have a great personality and lots of talents. Thanks for being so nice to me. Have a fun summer

HOW TO SNEAK A BOOK OUT OF THE LIBRARY WITHOUT GETTING THE FATAL . . . BEEP . . .

Plan A

Wait until Anne Noble has gone to the reading pit to break up those who are practicing for the submarine races, then quietly slide the book under the table and pick it up on the other side. If that doesn't work . . .

Plan B

Wait until the assistants start the two-hour ordeal of watering the 84 plants. Then carefully hold your book above your head, out of the danger zone. If that doesn't work . . .

Plan C

When Mrs. Beardall is caught up in the strains of the super market music, simply set the book on the table and again pick it up on the other side. If that doesn't work . . .

Plan D

Check out the book.

It's a Noble cause.

Taxi

Through rain or snow or sleet or hail,
Our bus drivers arrive, often quite pale.
Most drivers, I'm sure, cannot be quite sane
Considering the ride is definitely a pain.
So when they stop for us kids in the street,
They brace themselves for the thunder of feet,
For the yells and screams, the fights and brawls,
By plugging their ears and dodging snowballs.
When we forget the rules or deliberately break them,
Being kicked off is certain if we don't forsake them.

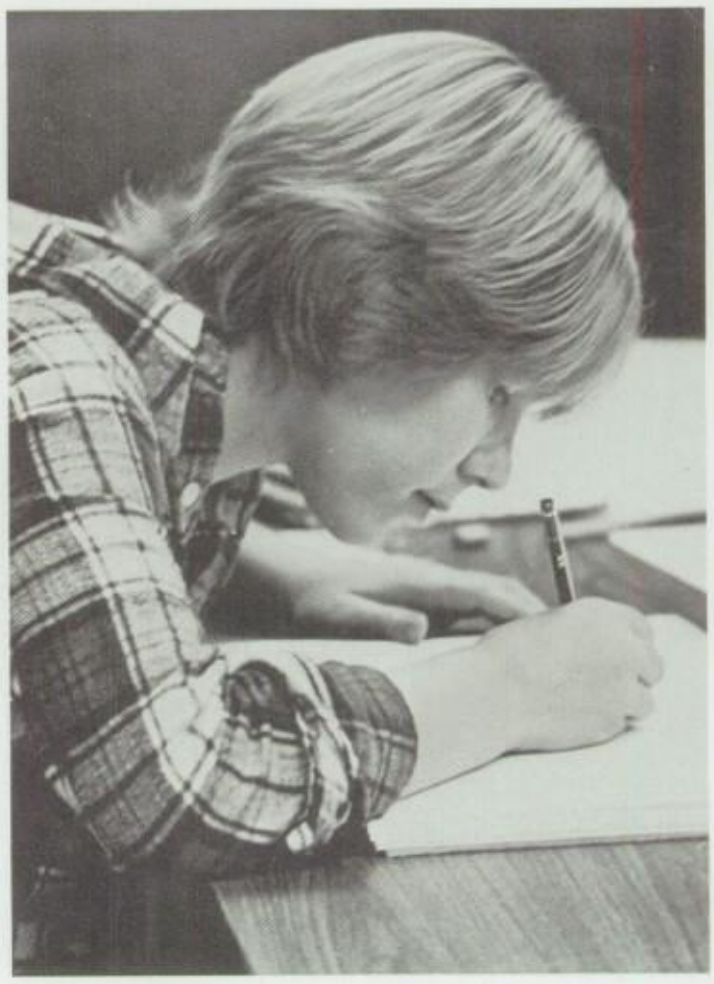
Linda Peterson, Photography, Yearbook

The mystery of the clogged toilets in the Industrial Arts Building was finally flushed out with the discovery that 2,000 pounds of clay had been "used" in art during the first term. The smell of photo toner and the blare of the radio, as well as exclamations from the yearbook darkroom at deadline time, couldn't stop the watercolor class.

The art department's saying for this year wasn't "muddy" but "where the heck is Miss Peterson?" Yearbook photographers were so hard at work that they only put one pin-up on the darkroom wall.

Sometimes Mr. Campbell's "old bomb" wouldn't make it to school, and he'd miss breakfast. But the problem was solved with a gallon of milk and a box of Carnation Instant Breakfast stashed in the film refrigerator. Russell Hopkinson's theory on inflation paid off his total photography bill by turning in other's reloadable film cassettes.

The question still remains — with melting pots in the kiln, missing jewelry, wire stretched across the room, heads lying on the floor, Mr. C's pigeons doing do-do's in the light room, and negative cleaner washing the darkroom — could Timpview's artist really be creative? You'd better believe it!



Eric painted along with Nancy Kominsky.

Annette Peterson thinks she'll call it abstract.

There have been several reports of UFC's (Unidentified Flying Contacts) being spotted by Timpview High students. Mrs. Steere was suspected of being conected with the matter. She's also been accused of burning off excess hands and of trying to take the stairs in a single bound.

Miss Decker tried to teach Craig Peay which fingers to type with. But first he had to take them out of his mouth. Speaking of mouths, Kelly Monnahans can talk up to 125 words per minute.

Dianna Jamison waited for a quick return.

A.P. or no A.P.? That was the question on many English students' minds. But they soon realized there were more important questions to be answered. Such as: does Odyssey really mean more than just the top ten records?

"Greatest Auto Feat of the Year" goes to Mike Bullock for his "super big" engine which ripped out the drive shaft. Runner-up would have to be Kerry Gardner for welding the guys under the table . . . or was it TO the table?

Perhaps Ron Melchin would profit from instruction in "How Not To Weld Holes in One's Flammable Coveralls."

The woodshop was known to take a belt or two also . . . or would "lose a belt" be more appropriate? If it wasn't Mr. Ashby and his cider, it was Robert Shultz running over the belt sander cord. Or the poignantly a propos: "Is that a worm in your salad, Leslie?"

Complimenting his in-class training program for world-dominating-student aspirants, Mr. Mc Coy offers lunchtime lectures on: "The Perilous Consequences of Unrestrained Cafeteria Crouton Litter." Whatever has happened to Gretchen and the "Good-Citizen Club"?

Memories light the corners of my mind. Misty water colored memories of the way we were. Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind, smiles we gave to one another for the way we were. Can it be that it was all so simple then, or has time rewritten every line? If we had the chance to do it all again, tell me would we? Could we? Memories may be beautiful and yet, what's too painful to remember we simply choose to forget. So it's the laughter we will remember, whenever we remember the way we were.

WONDER WOMEN

Our Cheerleaders - paragons of enthusiasm, the epitome of effervescent energy. They eat right; they exercise; they practice daily. Oh, an occasional flaw surfaces perhaps: sometimes they (Diane) fall off their (her) megaphones or the gymnastic daring of flying cartwheels (Nancy) terminates in the agony of disaster. However, if they go down, they don't remain there long. And take Lisa Harris (alias Dolly Parton); she's simply busting, er . . . bursting with . . . talent. Paula doesn't always wear the wrong socks, and Shelley didn't mean to pinch Paula's pom-poms for three whole months (she's just a teensy bit absent-minded), and a wintry eve's Lettermen abduction when they screamed and screamed (until their folks let them go), and . . . "A cheer, a cheer, a quarter for a cheer!" Debi, Denise, and Tracy, real promoters, netted a rythmic $15— selling cheers! And now, what are you flagging down, Lynn? (Butterfingers!)

Smile 'til your face cracks, ignore your shin splints. Did you remember to stretch before splits?

We used the pantyhose made for Joe Namath.

Calm and collected were Thunderbird Shandells when their music faded during State football semi-finals. But . . . what happened in a smaller emergency . . . when sprinklers sprung? Shandells screamed, scattered, and . . .

Did anyone catch Ann Peterson in curlers? or Teresa Best without her black roll? or Lori Jewkes without her slippers? or life without the "Need love, too" sweatshirts?

"When street lights come on, drill team comes out," a borrowed expression maybe, but six o'clock (a.m.) ten o'clock (p.m.) found Shandells "lining up" or "falling in" or "guiding right" or "BE-ing Quiet"?. . .

Scott Hymas, the center hikes the ball. Wistisen is there just in time to block for him. Vince Price charges with a string around his finger. He forgets. Today it's his helmet, his pants, his socks, his shoes, his jersey. (He would be sent home for them, but it's sure he would forget to come back). After the game the team will enjoy Brian Wilkes' story time with yummy punch and cookies for everyone. Back to action: It's a train; it's a plane. No, it's the Flying Greek, Manny Kepas. He finally made it into the fracas - and only one and one-half minutes late. The locker room jubilation is at its height. Ron, Ed, Wayne, and Kevin disco up a storm in their BVD's. It's the "Boxer Boogie!" A-one, a-two, a-one, two, three, four. "Get down, boogie-oogie-oogie. Get down, boogie-oogie-oogie."

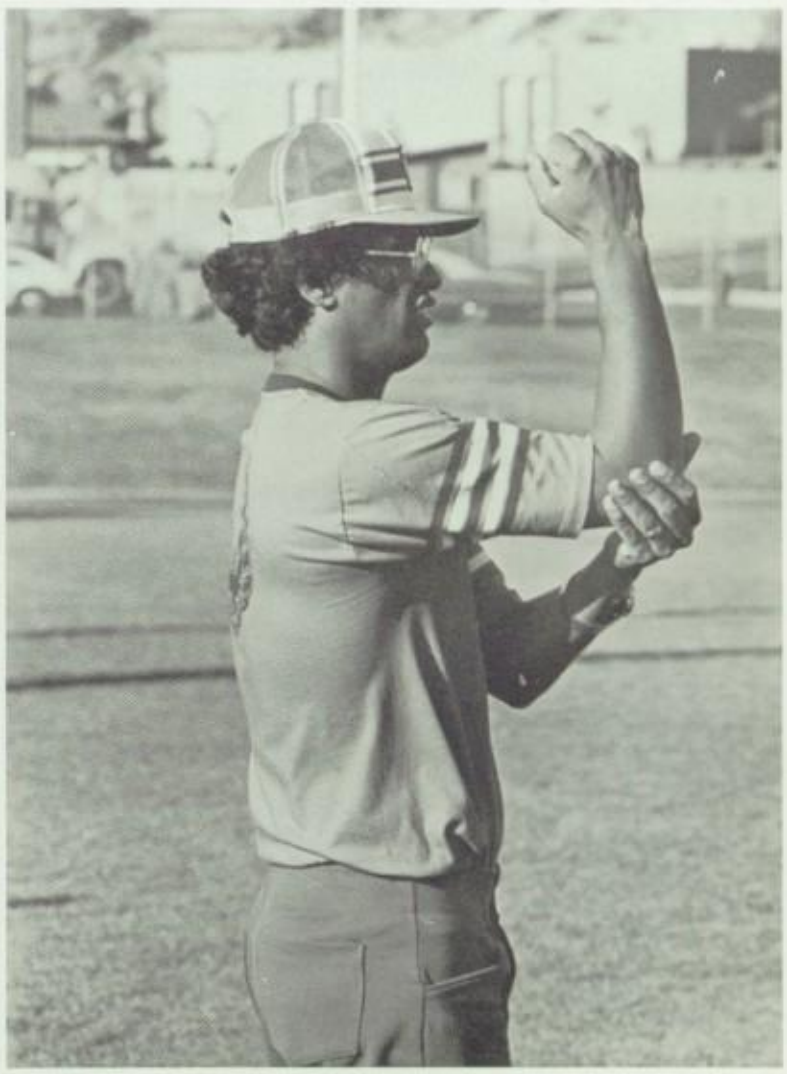
Our team could be on top of an order in 30 seconds.

One of these men coaches his son's football team and drives without insurance.



This was only one sample of Coach Kaou's dancing techniques.

Scott Hymas, sooner or later you have to stop playing games!

Nobody demanded more from a football team than Steve Strong.

Sword Of Justice

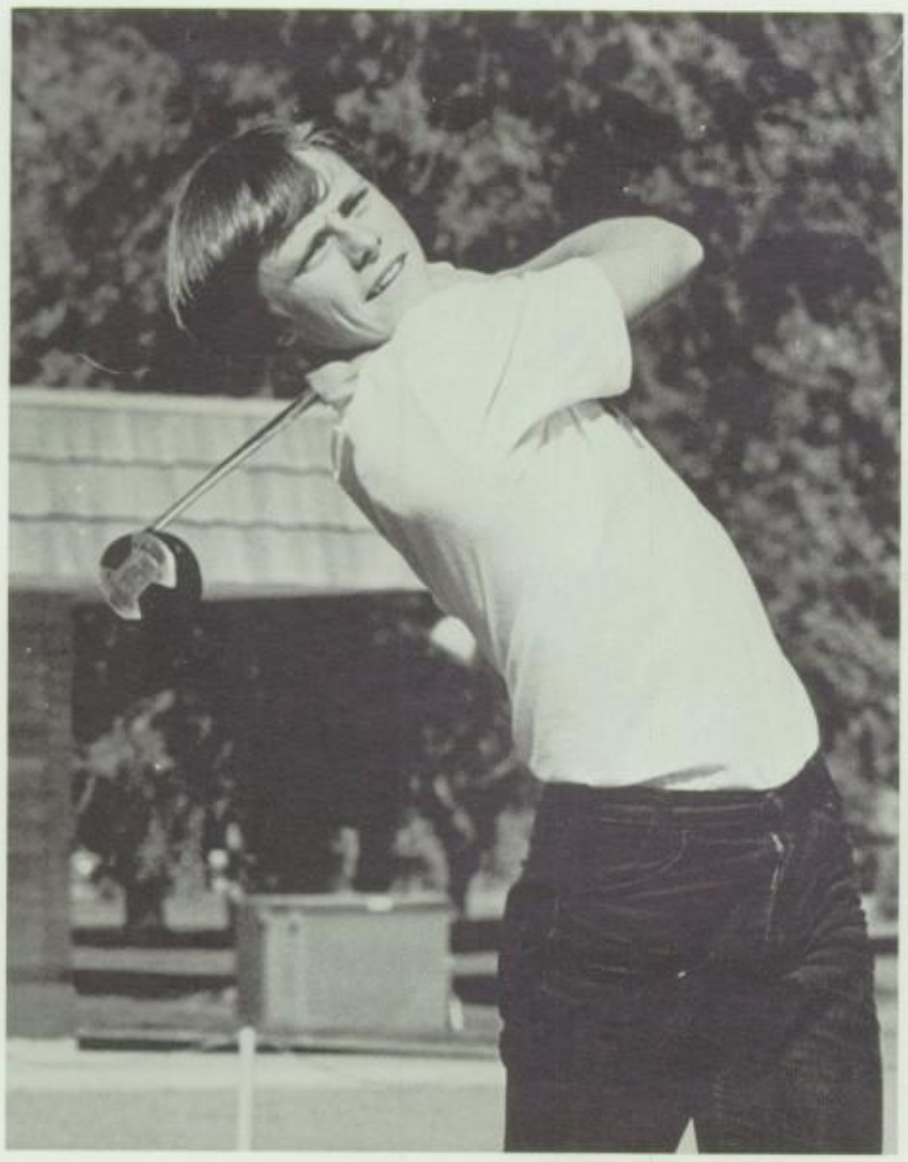
Diff'rent Strokes



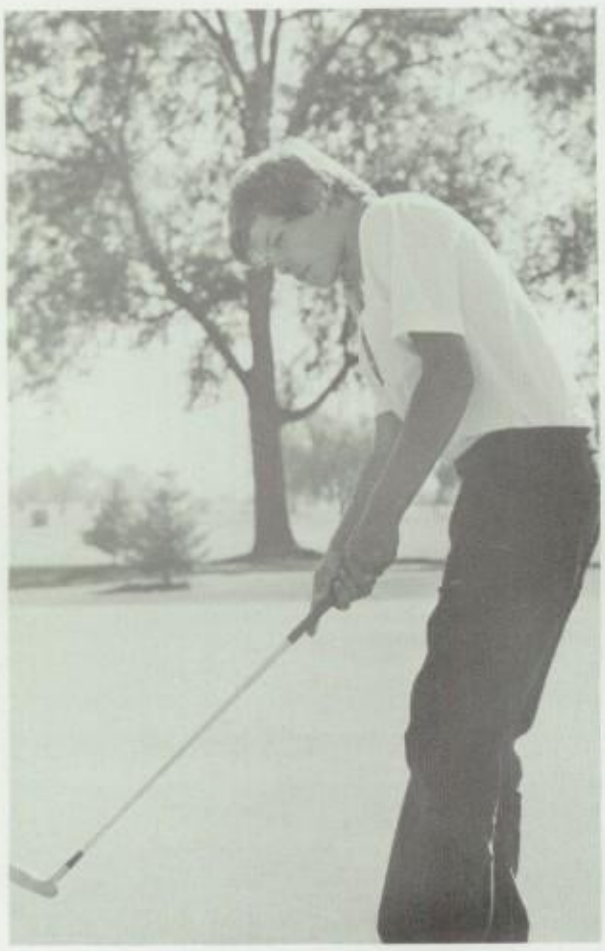
Todd Wilkerson, your eyes are exposed to more than one kind of sunlight.

David Stanger bet that David Burns had the biggest mouth, and guess what? He won. Burns fit the most golf balls in his mouth, overshot second place by two and still had room for his club. He also bet Reid Lambert could drive the farthest, and guess what? He lost. (Reid should really stick to driving . . . Miss Cannon Bananas). At last he bet that John Moody had a most perfect swing, but Janet Mortensen will argue that.

Dave Stanger tries harder.

Golf causes Beri-Beri.

Bill Madsen putters around.



Do it in the dirt Reid Lambert.

John Neuenswander hit the dirt!

The members of the varsity cross-country team were; John Allsen, Carl Black, Randy Carr, Chris Hughs, Jerry Meibos, Robert Shultz, and Richard Winterton.

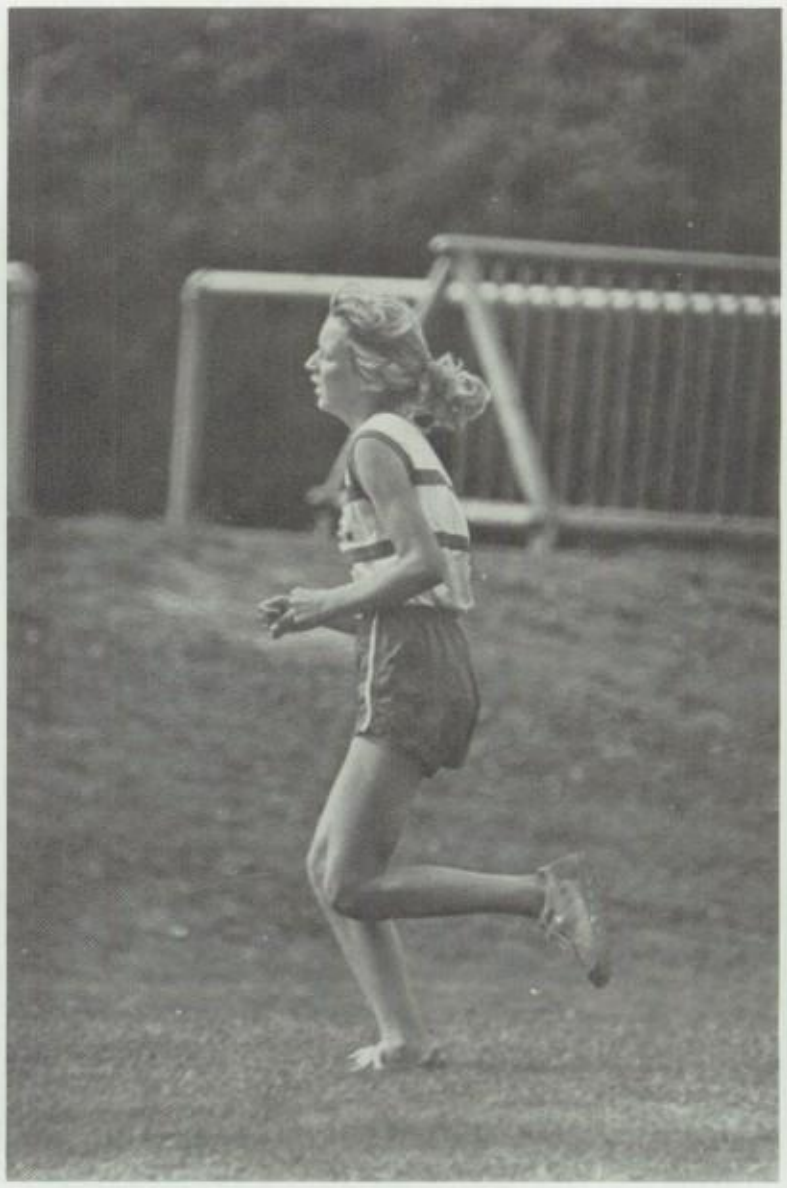
Some people set their sights higher than others.

John Peterson thinks it's better to take the bus.

Robert Shultz was outstanding in his field.

No thanks, we'd rather run.

Lisa Richard used her high-performance traction soles.



Jeri Gillie and no people for miles around

The Runaways

Sam Fletcher took Tracs when he was making tracks.

Nominees for light-socket award are: Randy Weekly, Chris Hughes, and Juli Smith. Envelope please ... Juli Smith! (What an upset)

And now the "who cares" nominees? Paul Stoddard, Stoddard Paul, and Staul Poddard. Envelope please ... oh, who cares ...

Nominees for the Duh-Gillie Award are David Gillie, David Gillie and no envelope needed.

And now for the seriously documented award.

Timpview's Cross Country team took the Provo, Tri-City, Orem Kiwanis, and Murray Invitationals. They took Region and were second only to Davis at State.

John Allsen and Robert Shultz made All-State.

Of course we could live without State!

Stretch Armstrong.

I designed my shoe to help me keep winning.

Elaine Monson might have been voted most valuable volley-ball player but really was in the wrong sport. Boys in computer football could have used some competition.

Robin Benedict, who wanted to T.P. that top branch, should have left the tree climbing to the monkeys. At least monkeys fall with class. Consider this: Your sets are super; your spikes are swell and our team will scare them all to . . . Well . . . Rush their death, rush their death Rush their death with our team.!

Mrs. Belnap "Intriguing, Ms. Fishler, but what does it mean?"

Be Choosey!

A comfortable well built shoe can improve your game.

People From Atlantis

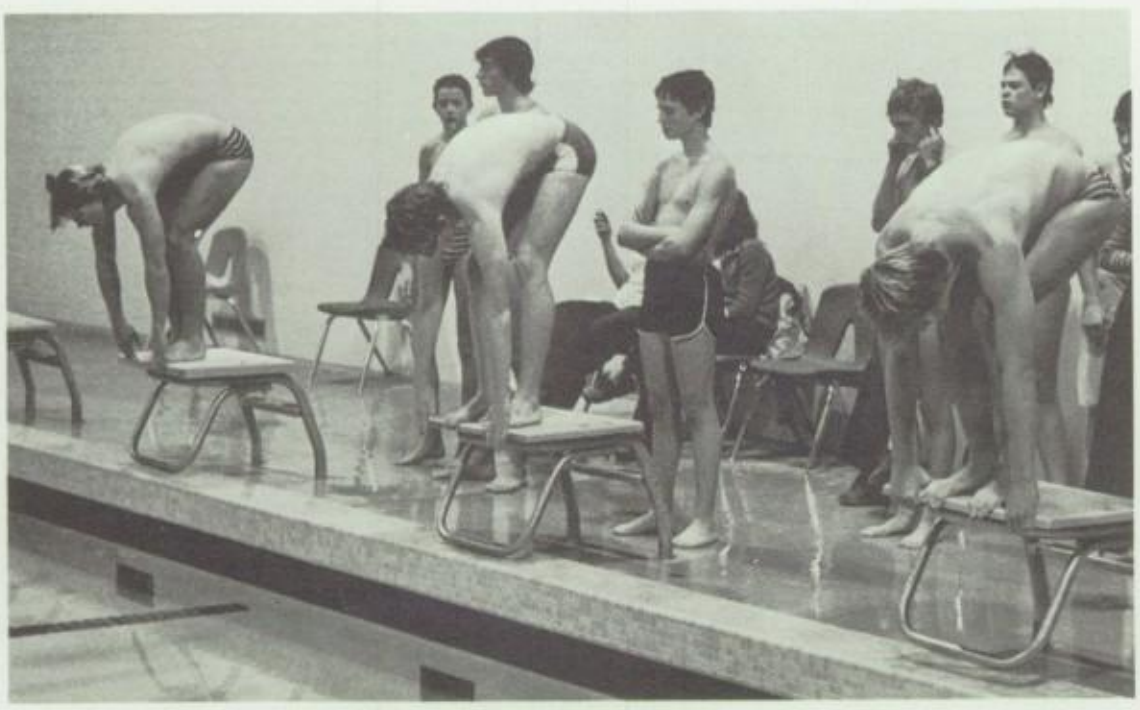
Camille Kartchner swam in a circle of confidence.

Mush is mostly for men. Real men.

You've come a long way. Paul Larsen.

While you've been working your way up, we've been waiting quietly for you to arrive.



"Wait 'til I finish my Saratoga!"

Co-ed swimming sprints budding romance as well as two-for-five-cent candy bars, finds out-of-the-way landmarks (Mut and Jeff's Restaurant, Stockton's Ski Resort), and stages resourceful contest with snow, with Pringles, with knife throws. Paul Larsen finds little luck in collecting fare from those who used his taxi service. Unofficially Blake Mortenson perfects his last minute dives on bus for the honored back seat.

But . . . David Lundberg remains first in every event.

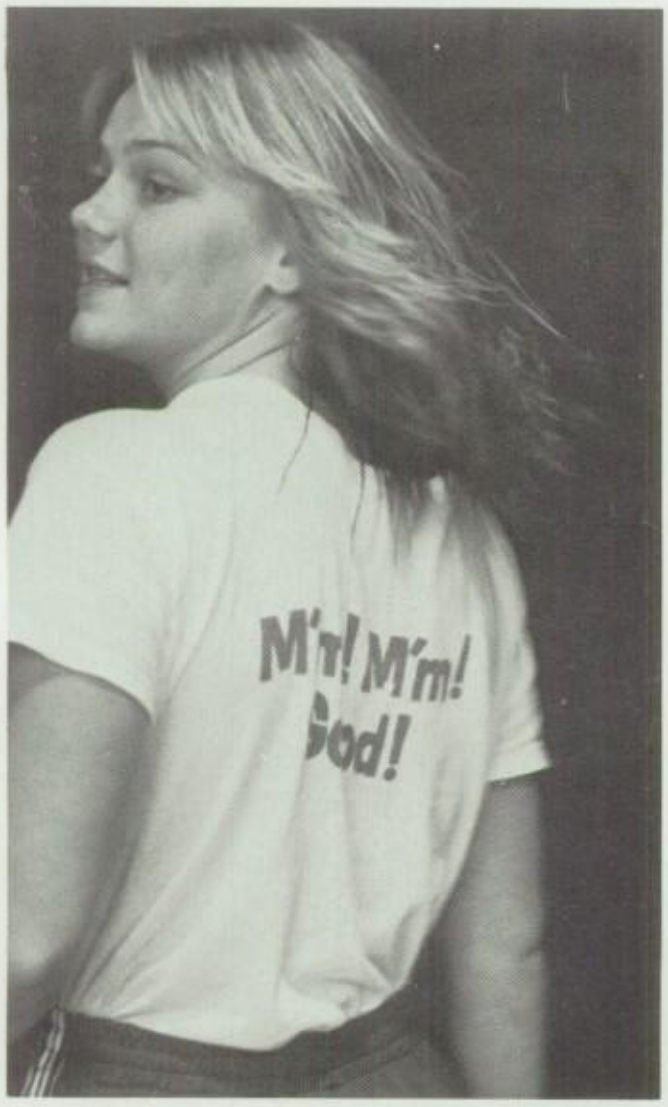
To win . . . you take what's natural and make it better.

Your insurance should be as individual as you are.



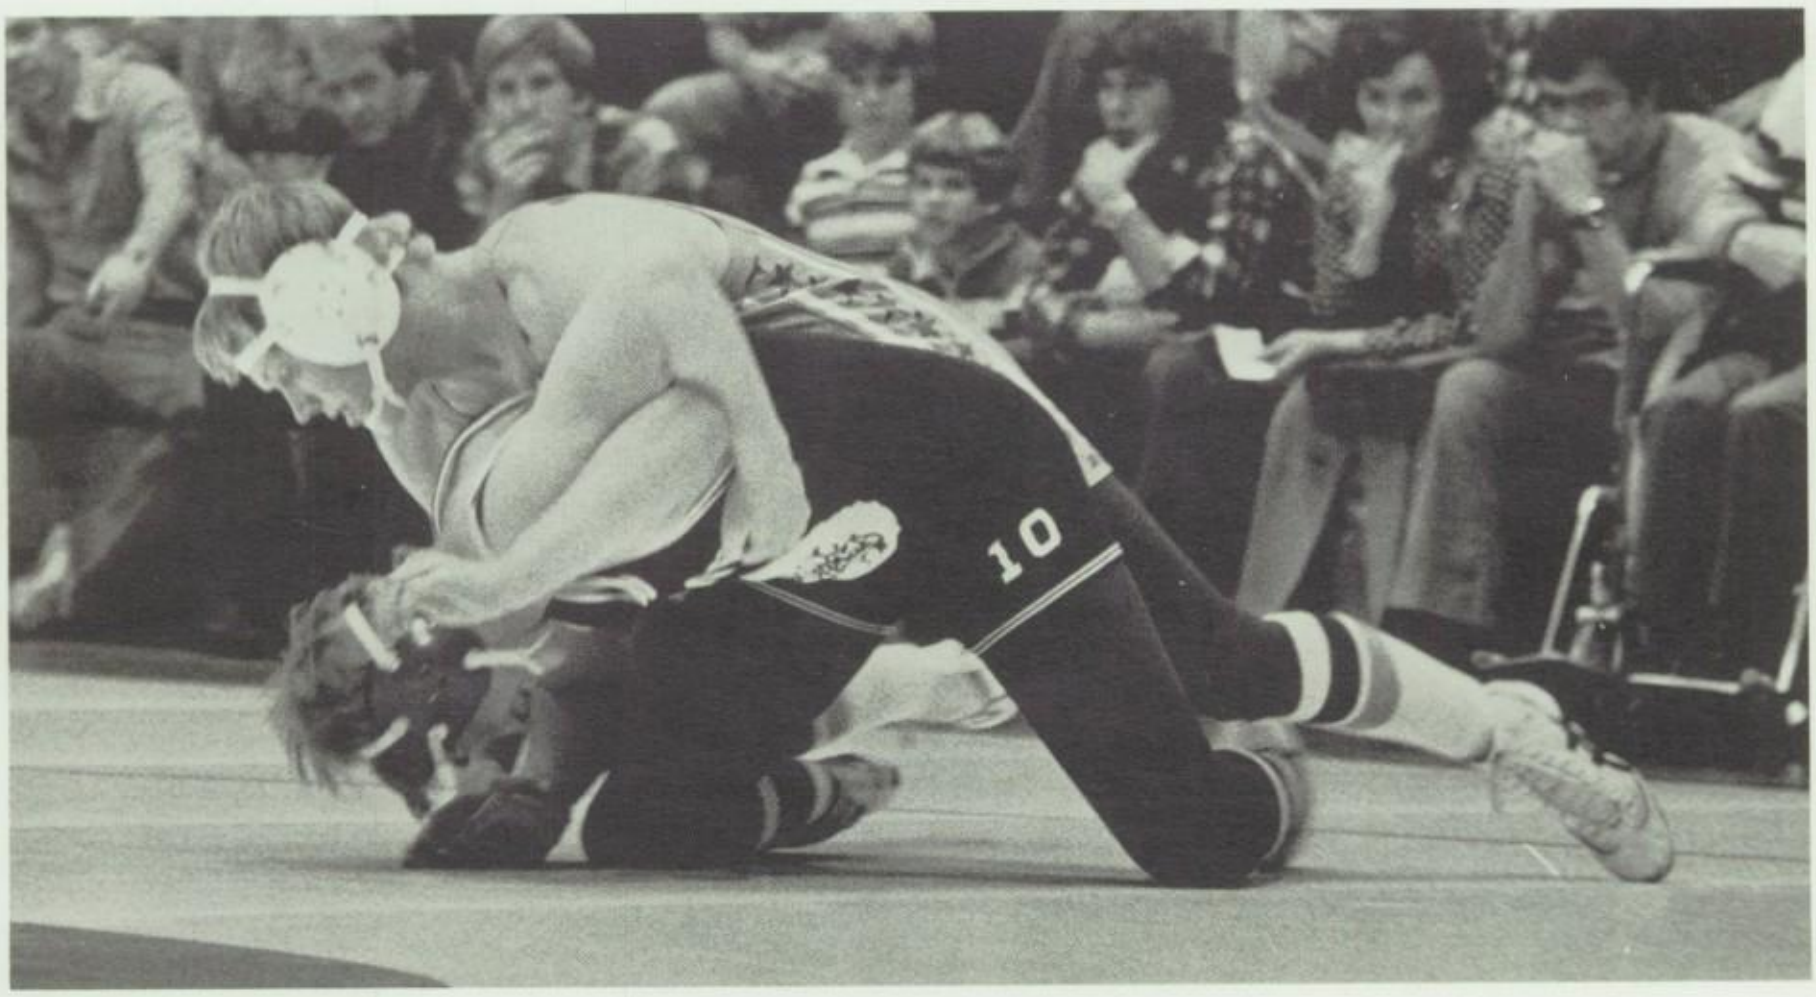
M'm! M'm what?

We offer you more.

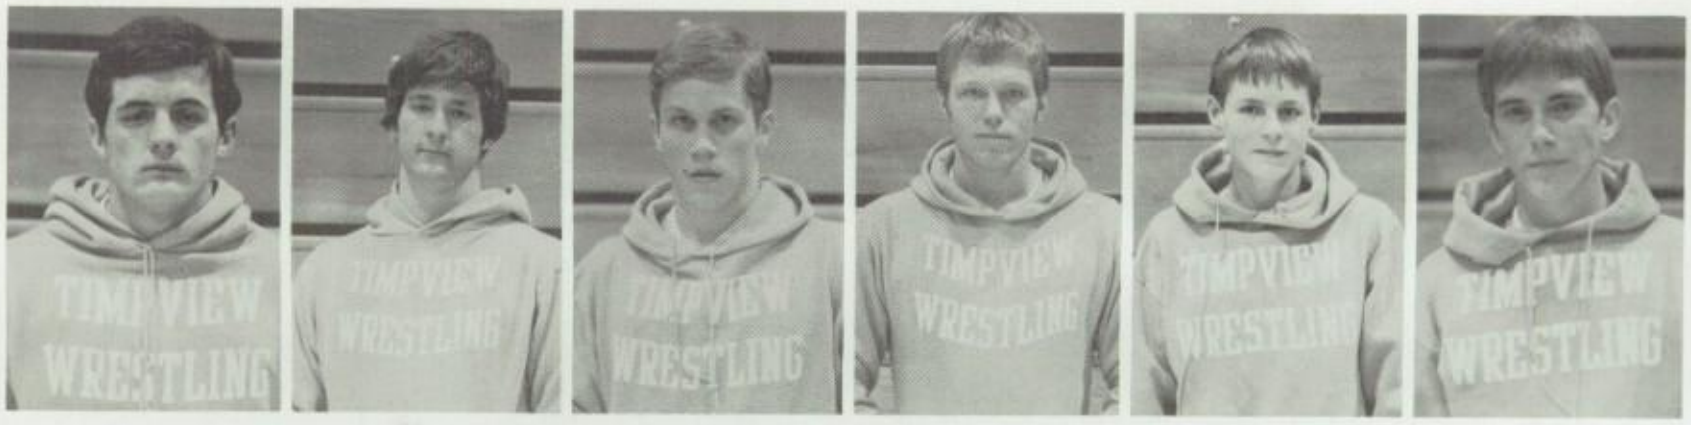
He'd swim a mile for a Camille.

Junior Varsity. Front row: John Peterson, Brian Wilkes, Craig Smith, Lee Bryner, Robert Clegg, Alan Stonely. Back row: Dee Oldroyd, Ben Levaki, Trent Fletcher, Robert Demonte, Greg Kuhni, Jordan Christiansen.

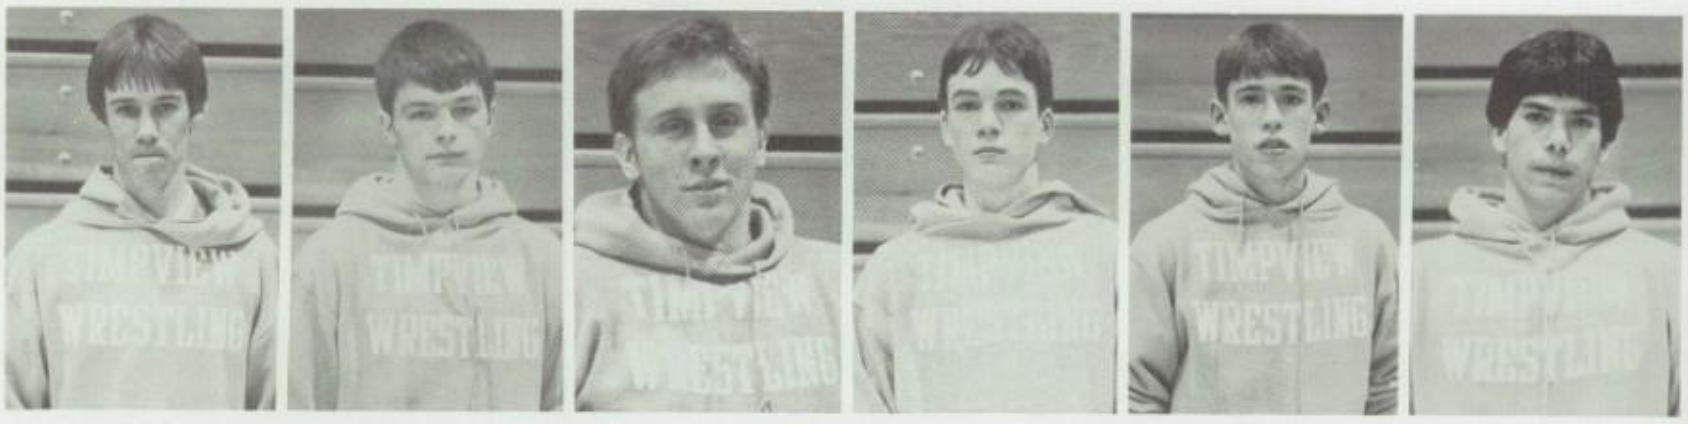
Our Incredible Hulks



One of the reasons the cost of health care is in such bad shape . . .

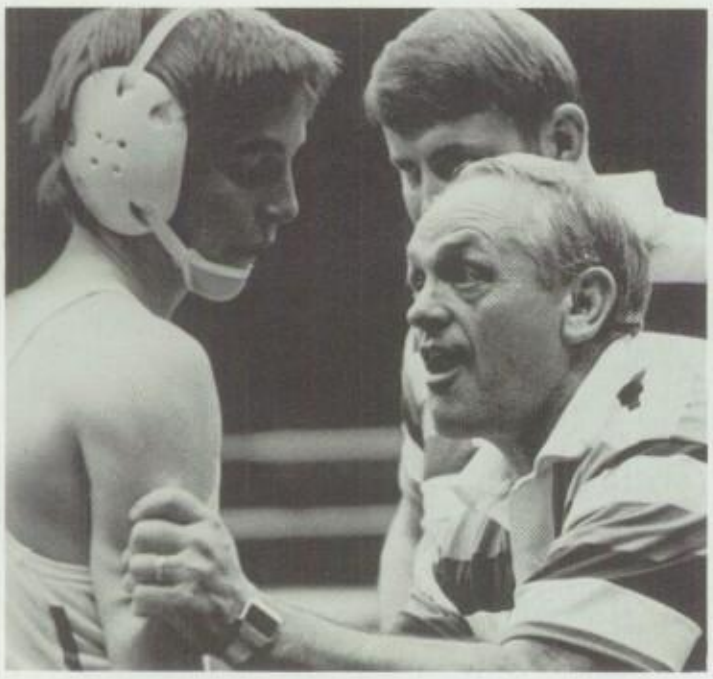


Alan Griffin | Brett Burr | Spencer Blake | Eric Sondrup | Evan Richards | Carl Black



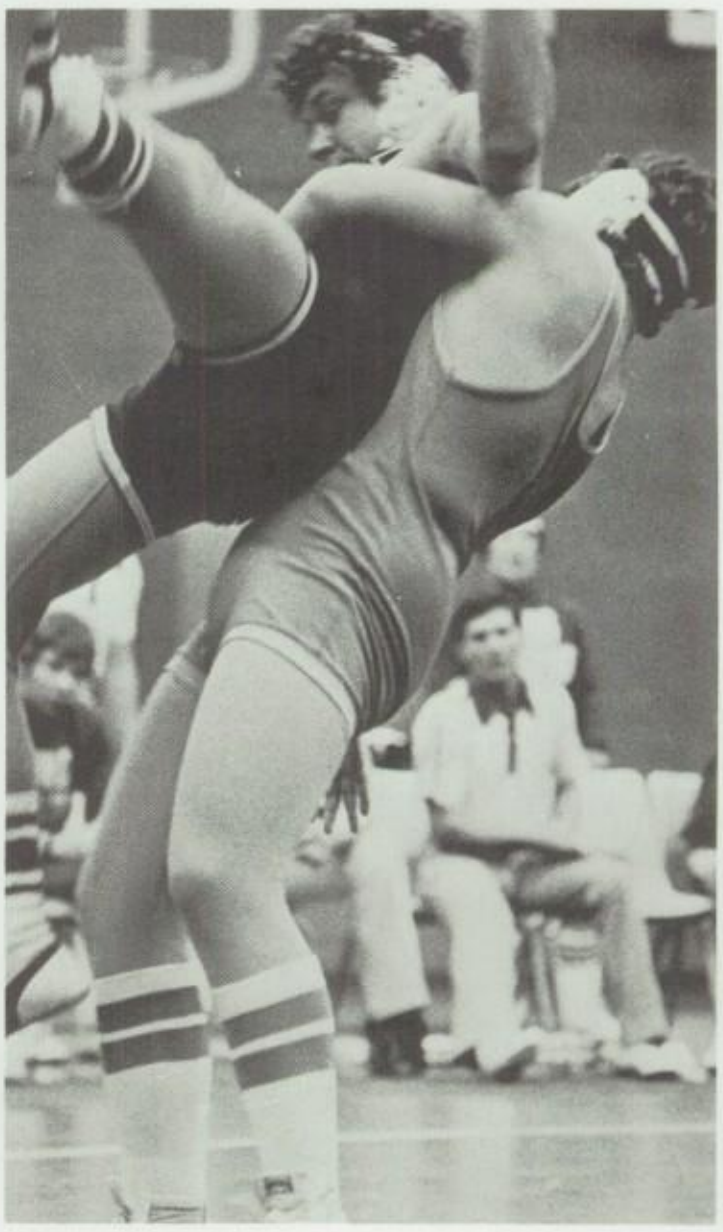
Jerry Meibos | Paul Stoddard | Russell Meldrum | Kipp Robins | Chris Hughes | Steve Aaron

Varsity Wrestlers



P.S. I Love You.

Is wrestling a question of strength, wit, and training that pins opponents to the mat or is it just plain bad breath? Will Brett Burr's mom ever gain a stomach for wrestling? Will the team really shave their heads bald? Well, it's all a little too much for Martinez. Now they've got him rooting for first downs.



The makings of a very meaningful realtionship.

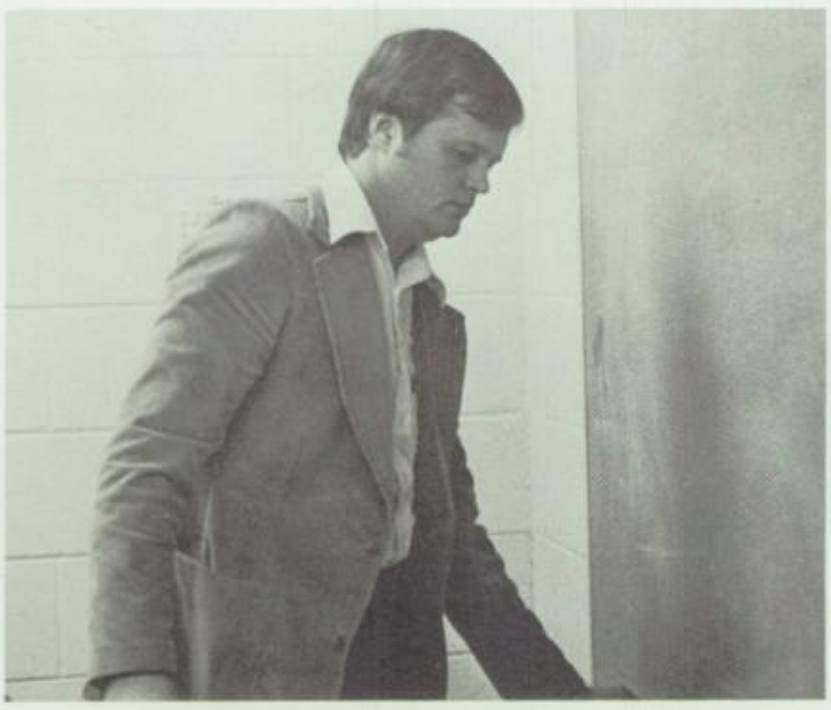
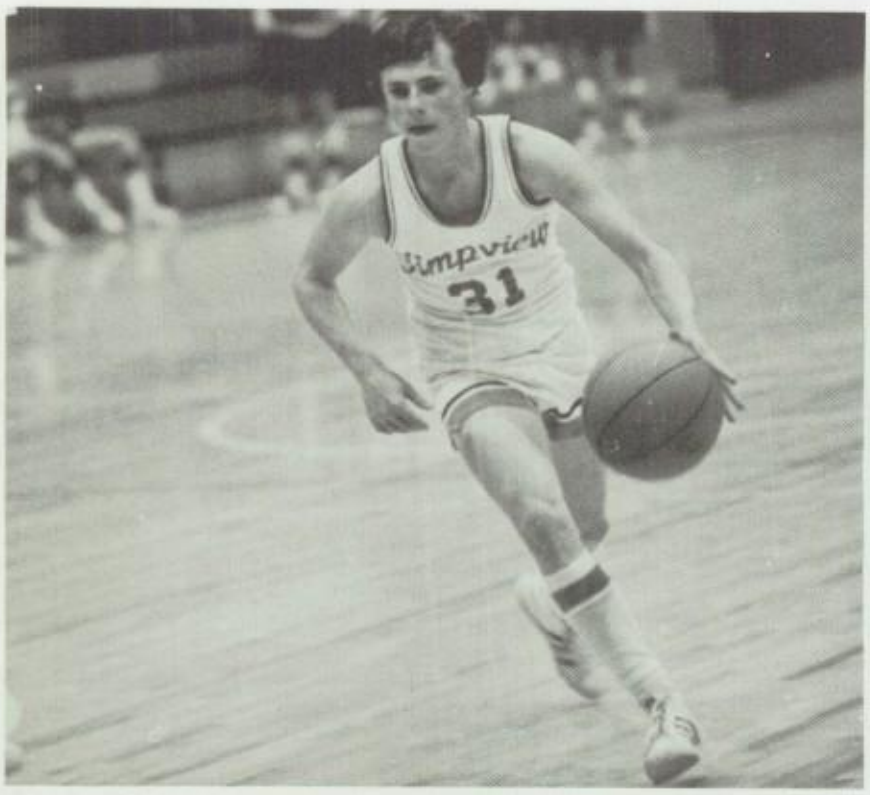
Make the most of the times of your life.

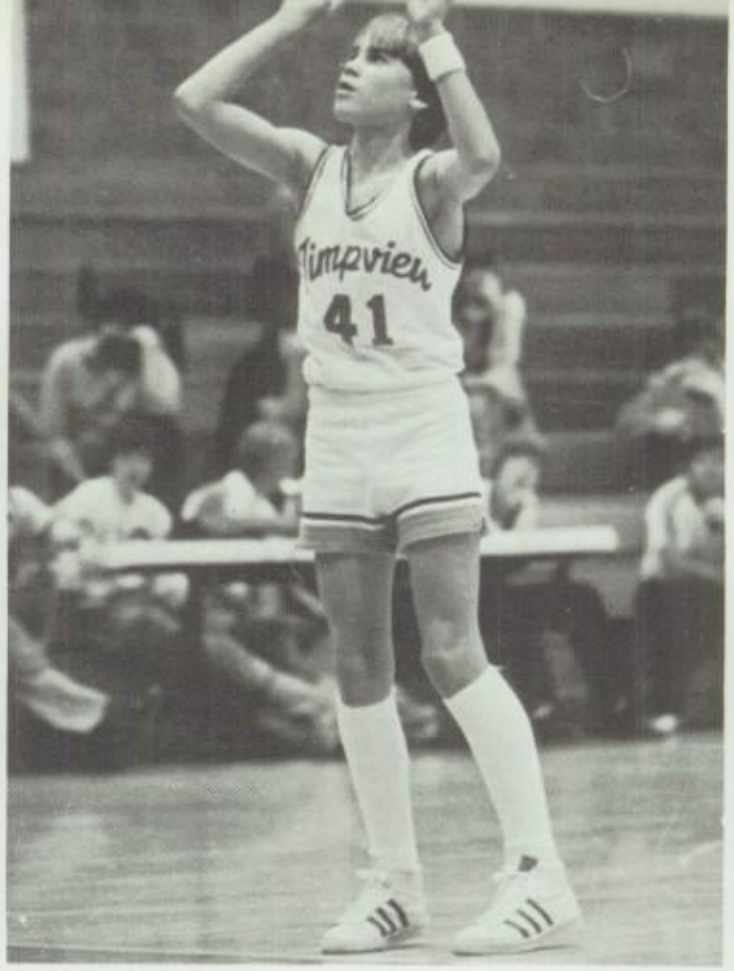
Should we put them out of their misery now or let them suffer a little?



Decisions . . . Decisions . . .

The big difference between us and them is the basket.





Alright, who stuck gum on the ball?

Greg Nord moved like grease on roller skates.

When Robert Daines dribbles, people pay attention.

Some people set their sights higher than others.

More dependable than a man.

Rush service.

Don't put it off. Put it in.

Oh, what Title IX has done to basketball . . . huh, Mr. Mc Coy? What a way for a man to start a day!

Fragile, fickle . . . not really, but . . . certainly female. If the ball was not rebounding, Margrit was, but her "granny shots" scored. And Shannon, weren't those Hawaiian shorts a charging violation? Disco might have replaced the "hustle" for most but not for Susy Chase - right boys?

One last question for Mr. Mc Coy - "Who checked shower roll?"

Sam and Robert get more smiles to the gallon.

Kevin Gull, before you take off, learn how to fly.

It's rich and red, it's moist and meaty, but it's not hamburger.

We've turned the corner, victory is in sight.

Keep on trackin'.

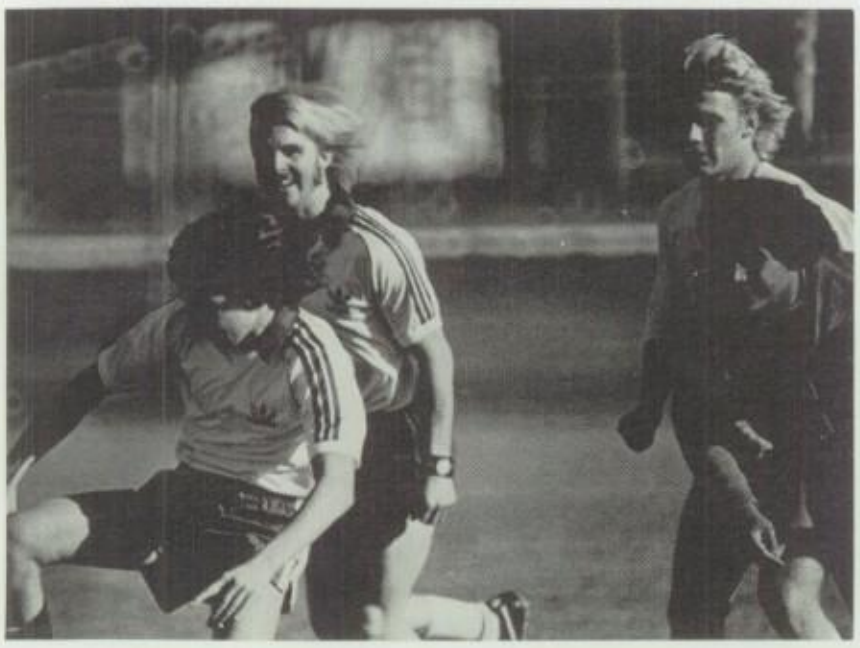
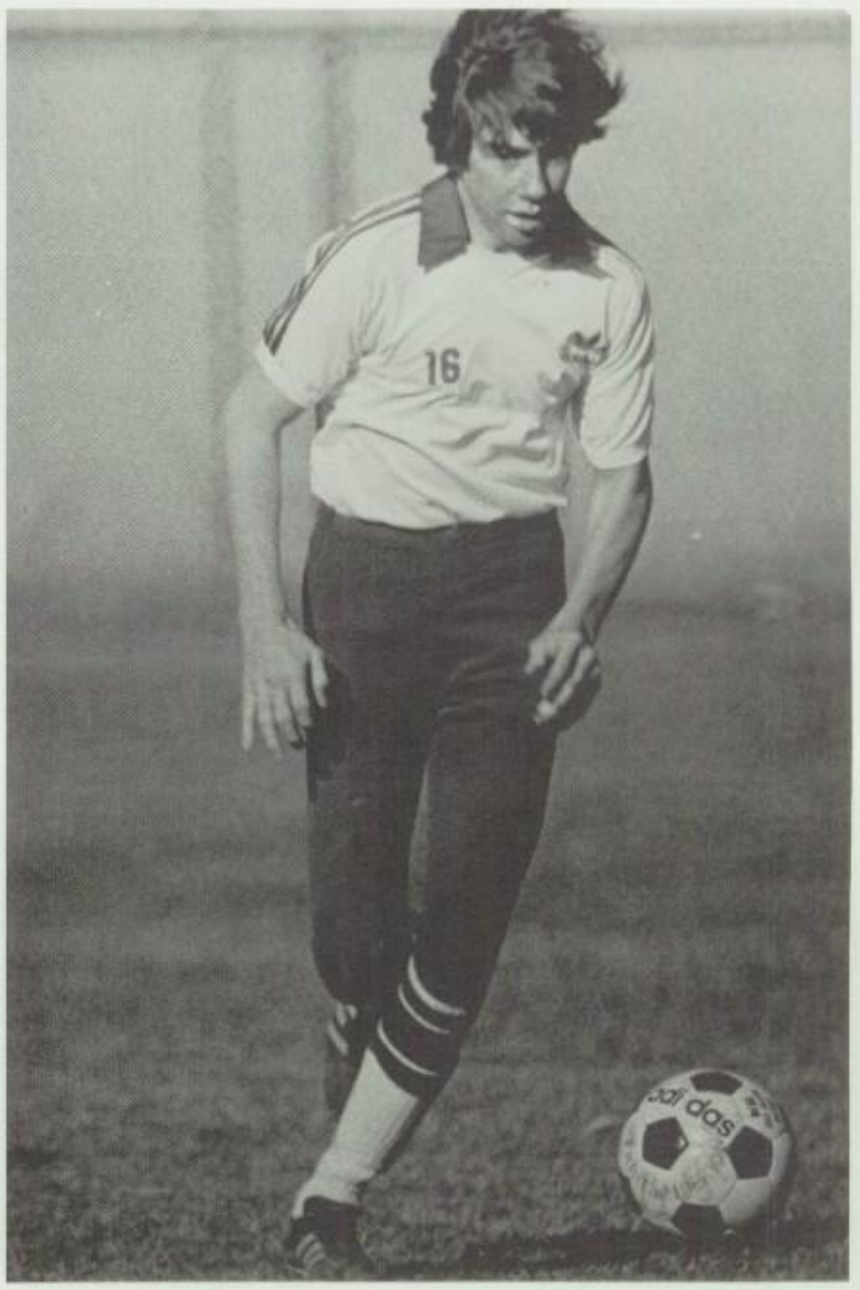
Star Soccer

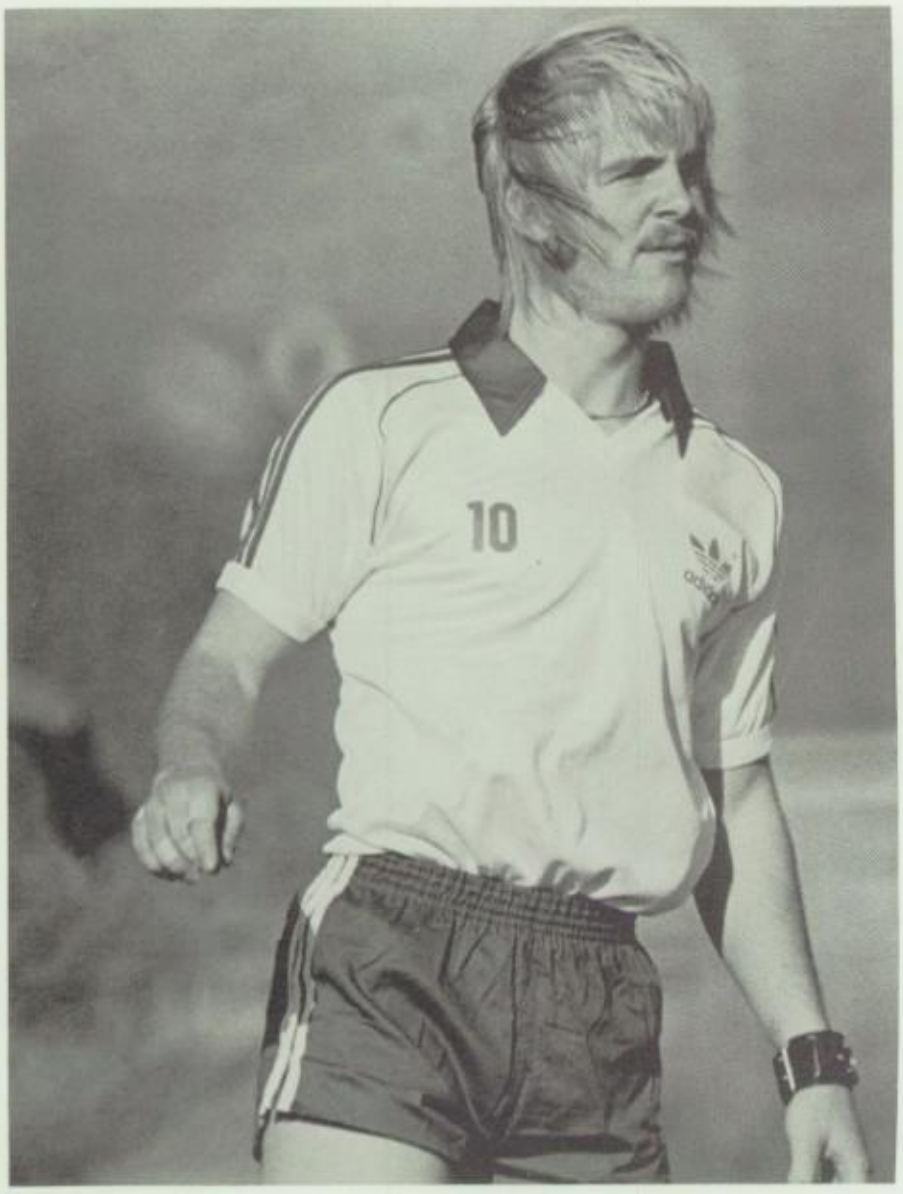
Soccer left Mark breathless.



The strong survivors.



Greg, you're one step ahead.



Mike; if it grows, Ortho can help.

Tony had a Posturepedic morning.

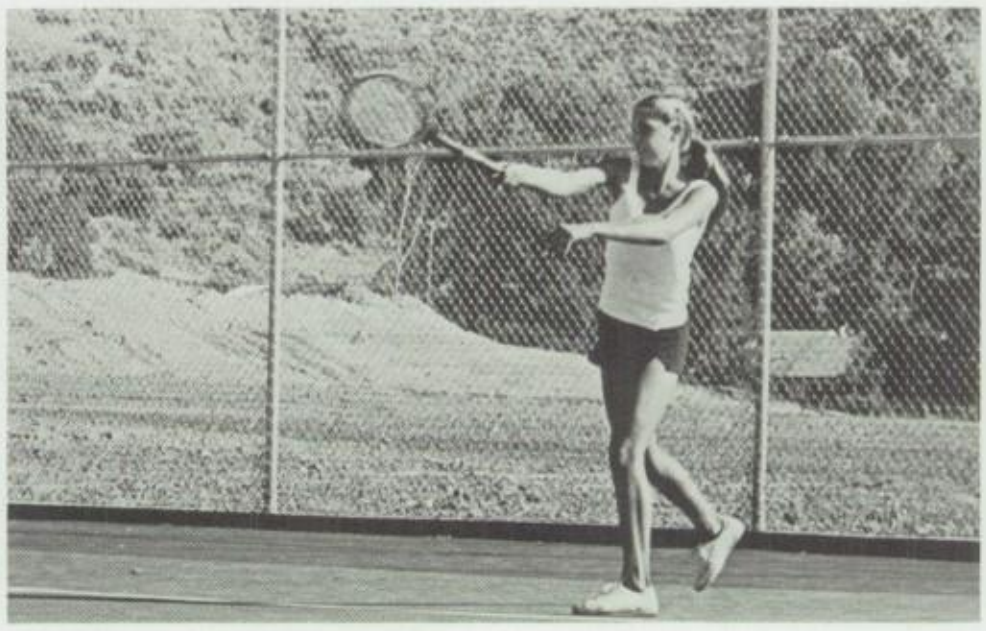
Coach Don Chamberlain

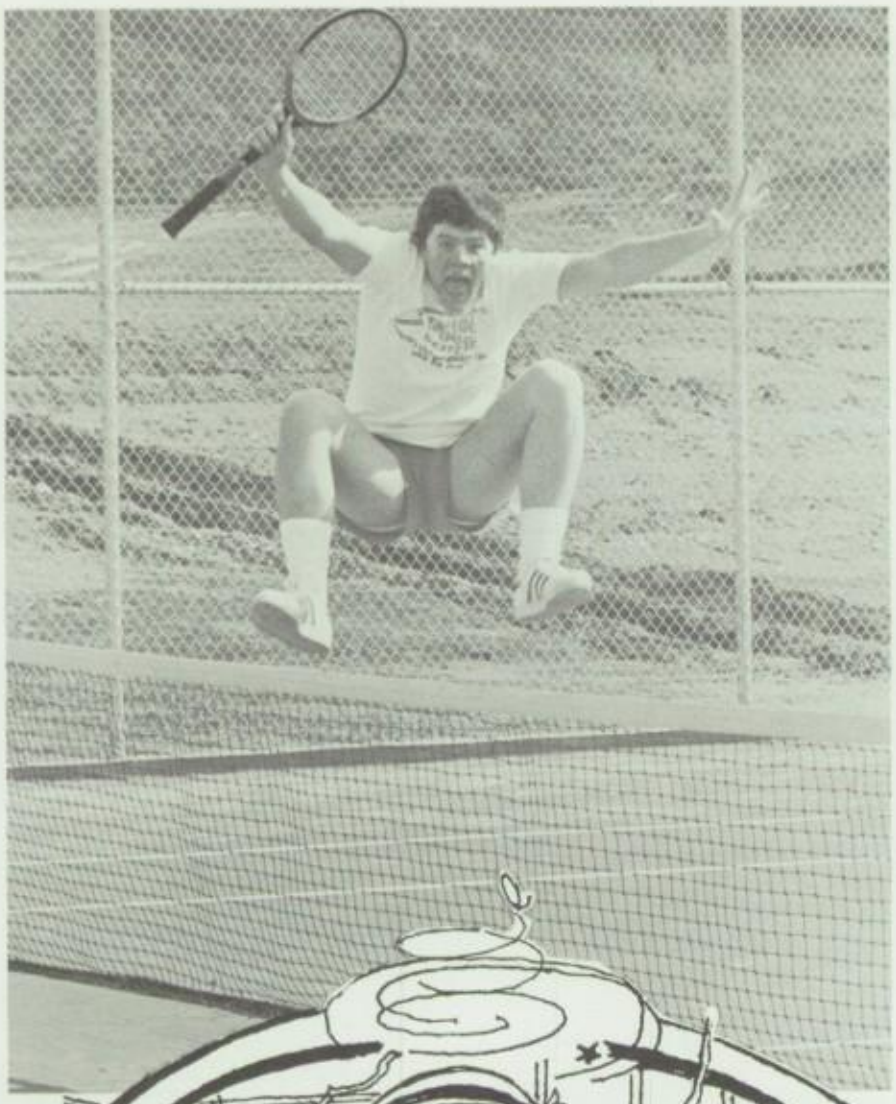
Susan Bigler, how do you make a good shot great?

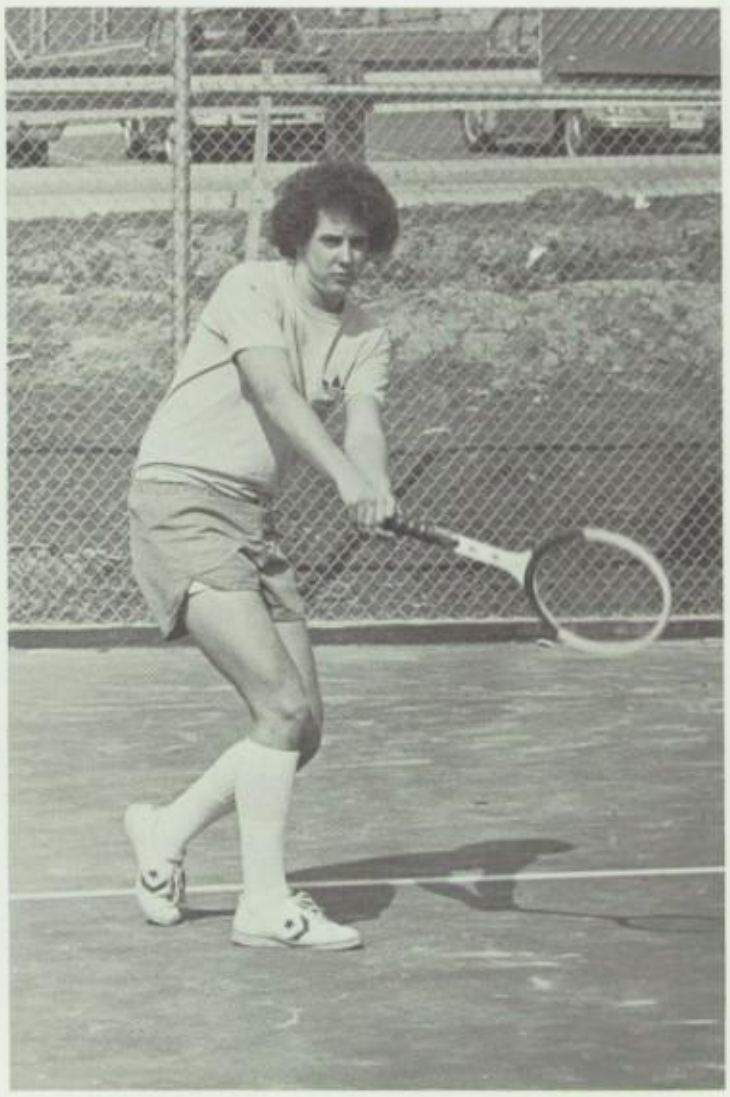


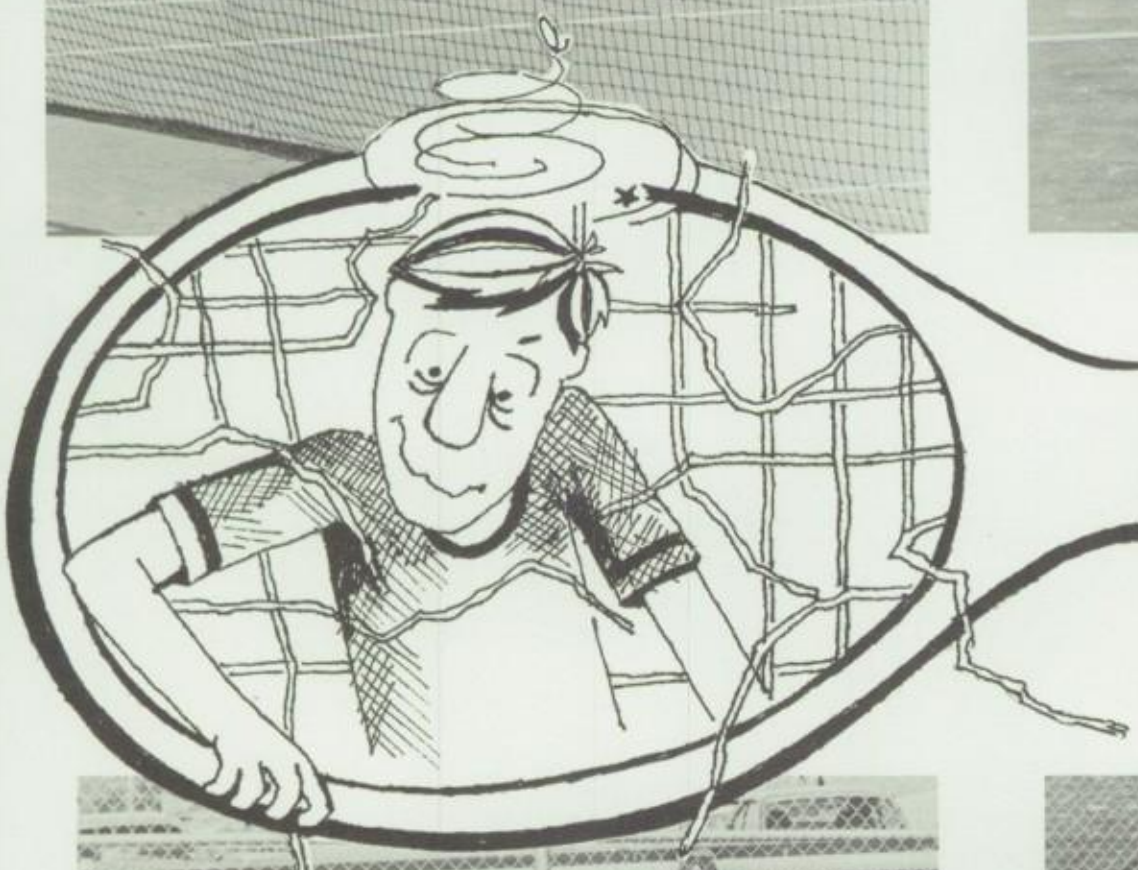
Linley Tanner had SX appeal.

When the yellow balls fly through the air,
Diane and Terry run scared.
As Leslie's racket swings,
There's an inevitable break of the strings.
Mette tripped on the net
which lost her the set.
Was this from her grace?
Or an untied shoelace?
When we play a team that's a hack-
Susan goes home to kick back.
We needed Kristin and her tricks,
But on the morning of state she got sick.
But we were all plucky,
The other teams unlucky,
So we're glad we can say:
"We made the other teams pay."

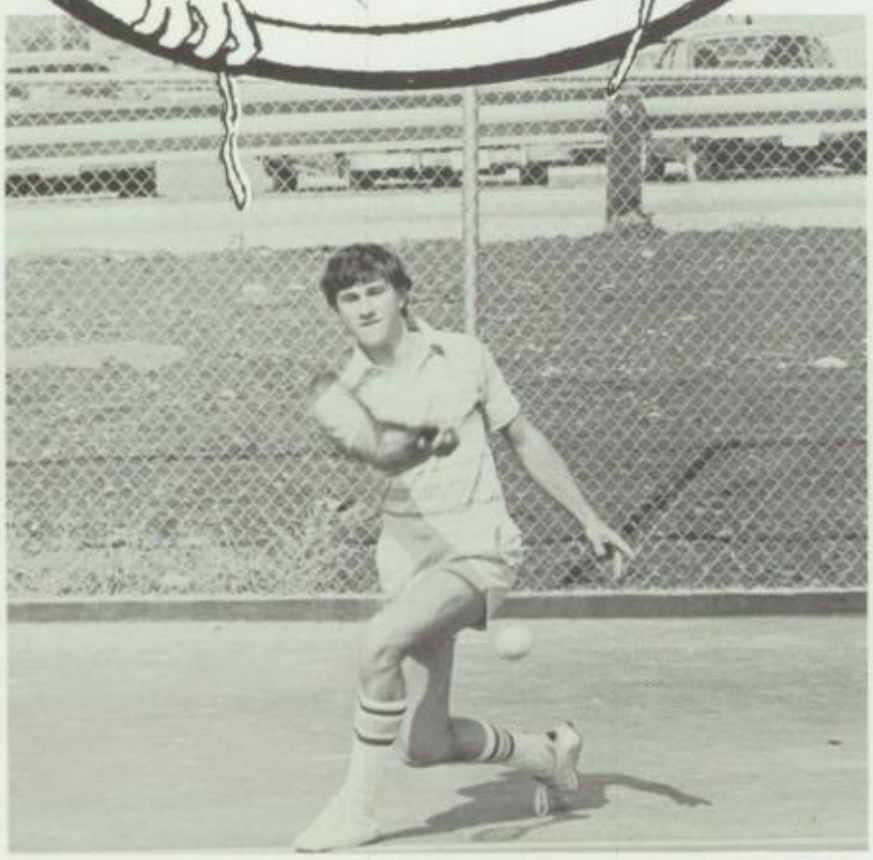
Mette Wulfe was this years best import.

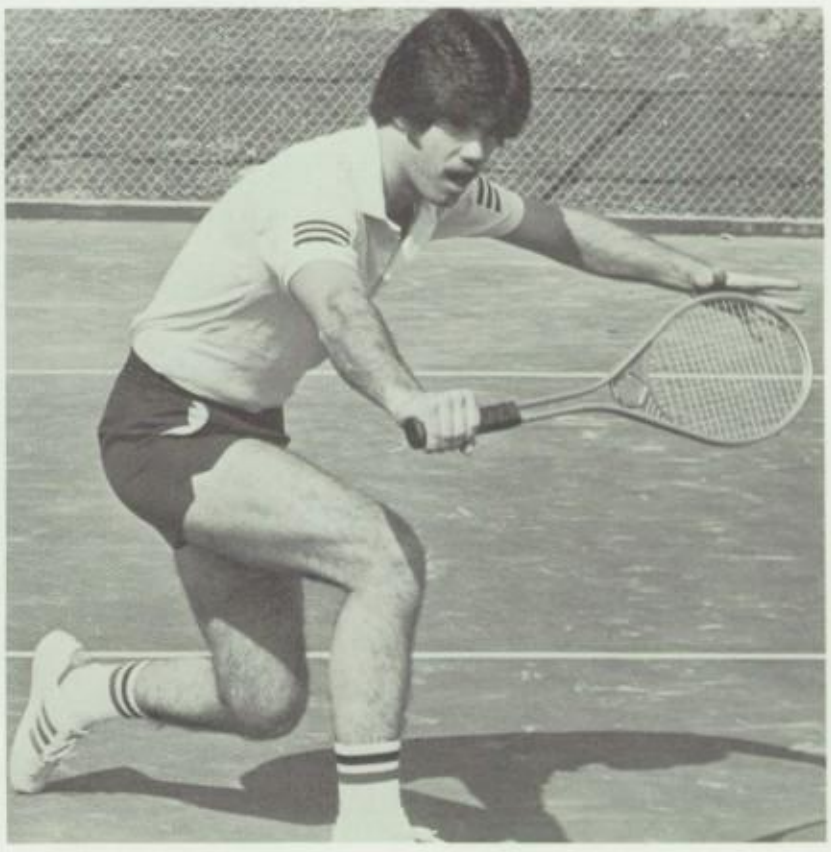




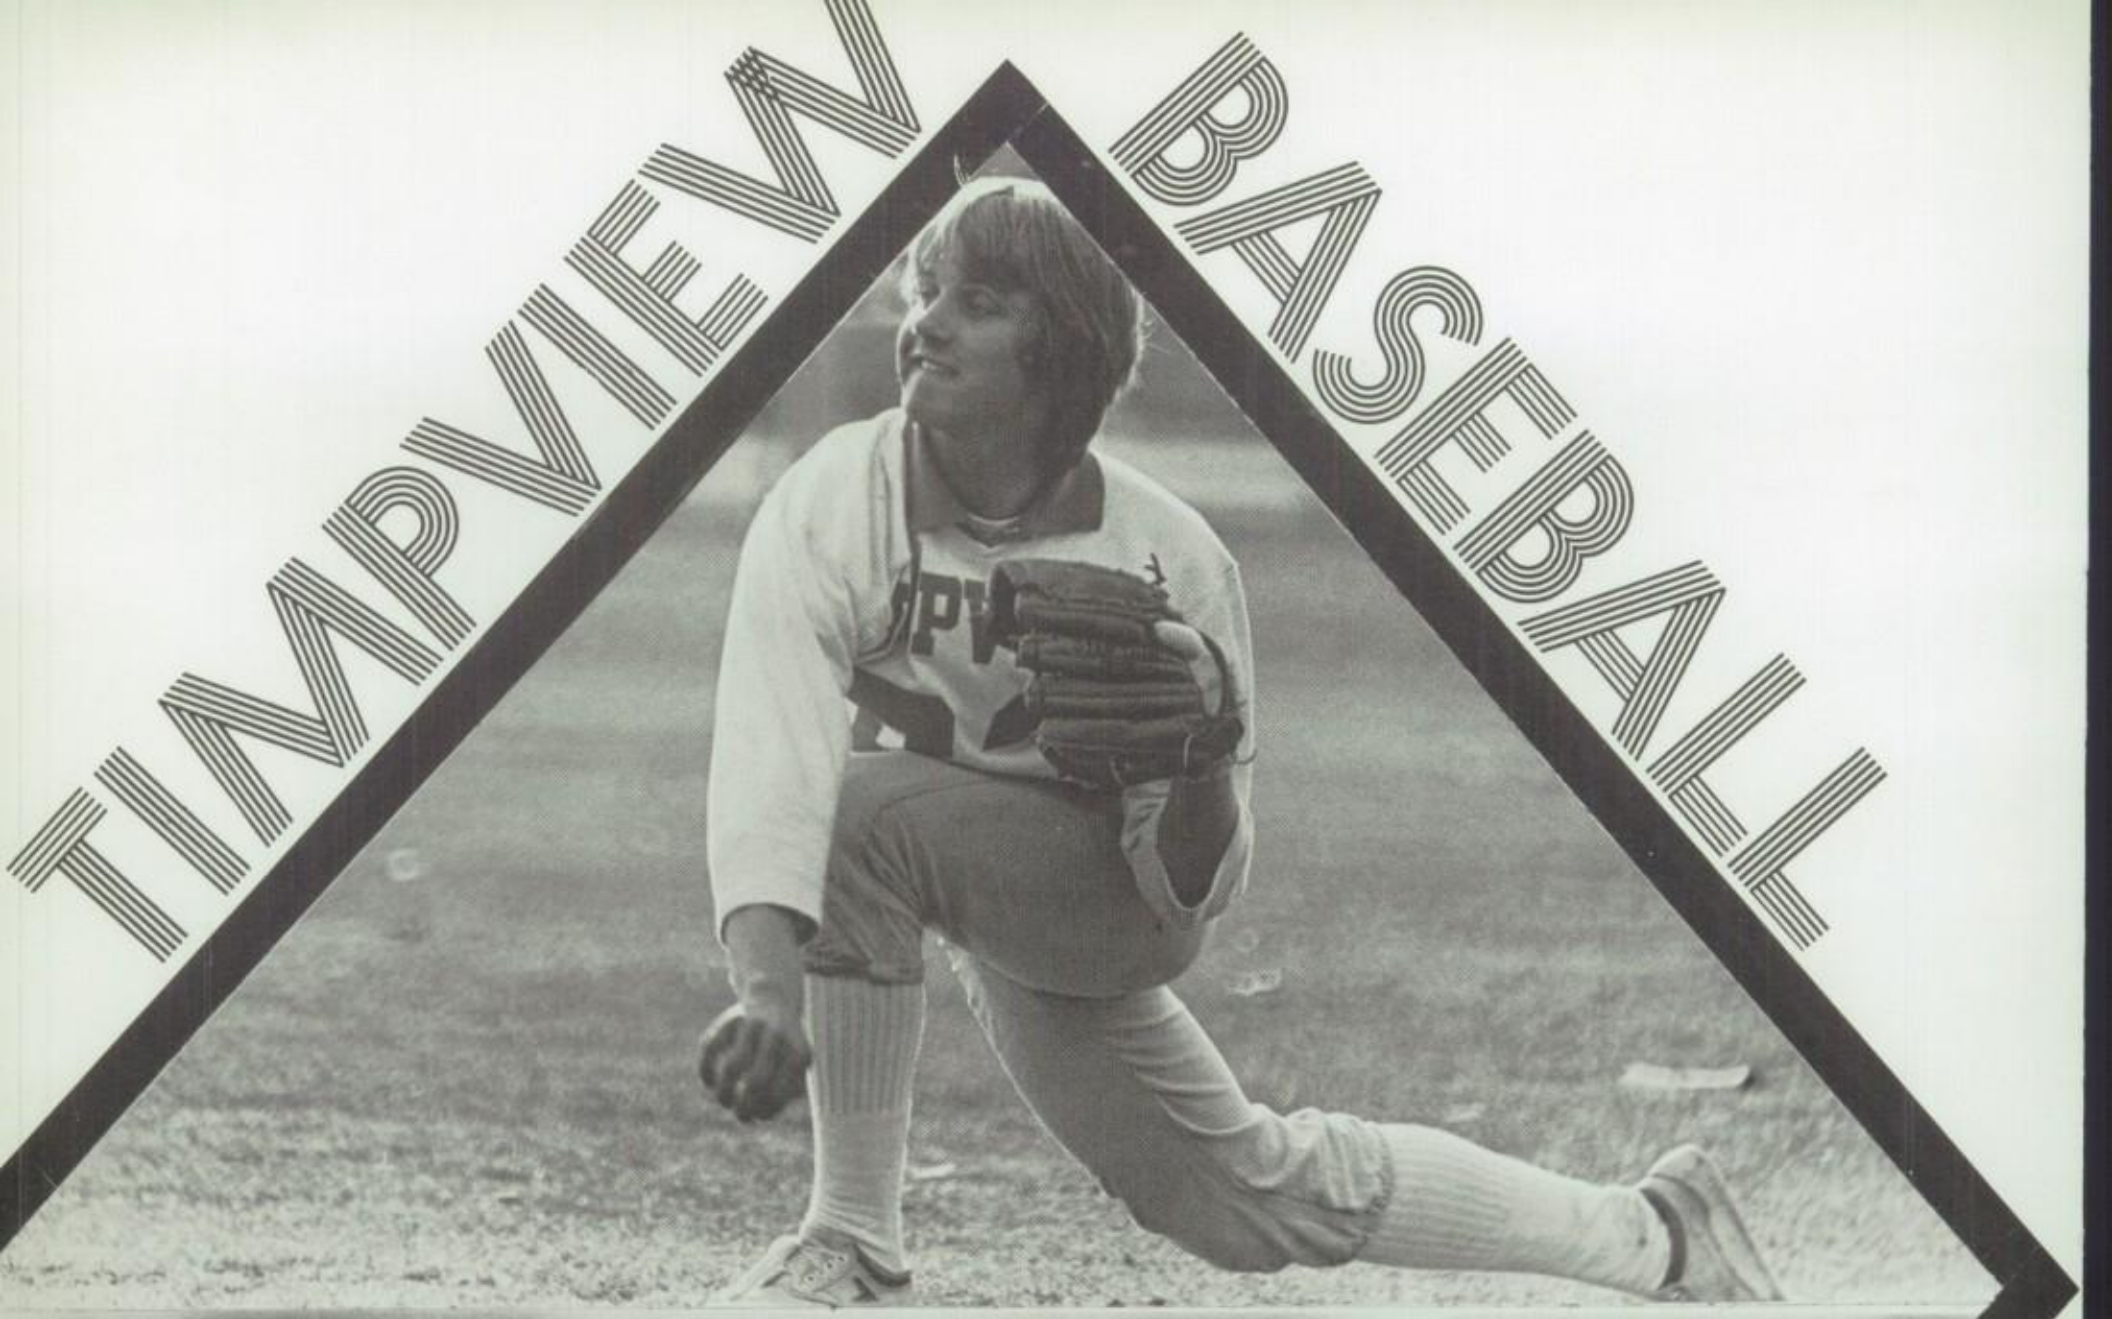


Boys' Tennis





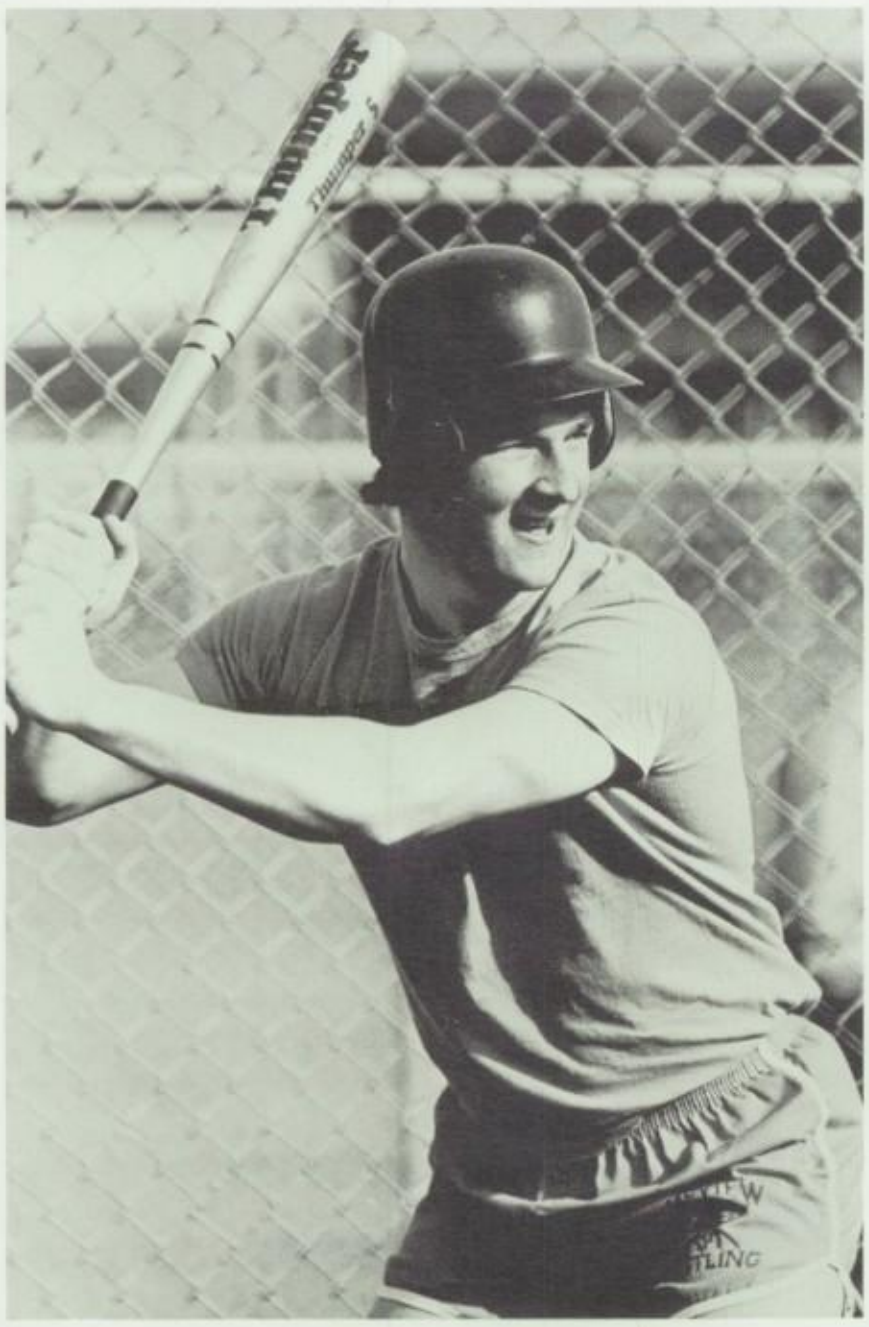
TIMPVIEW BASEBALL



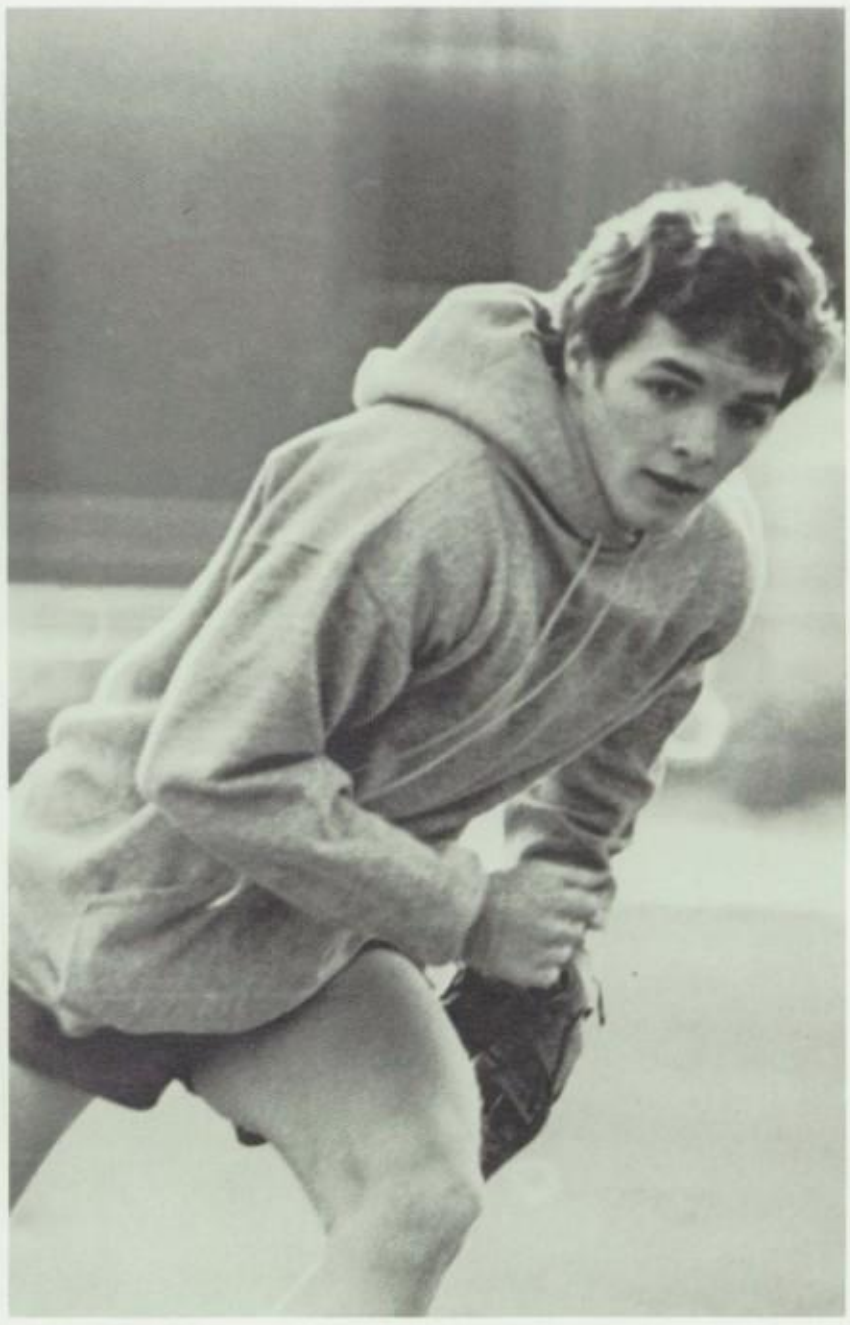
Now. It's a satisfying decision.

Timpview's '78 baseball team flew high by taking state in 3a baseball. This year's "wild and crazy" team had a reputation to live up to. Scott Hymas finished the season with region and state honors. Coach Hales kept the teams' noses to the grindstone all season. And that accounts for the teams' many runs...and hits.

Flying High



"It's going to take a mutual effort to help them recover," said Brett Burr.



Someone was ready when you were.

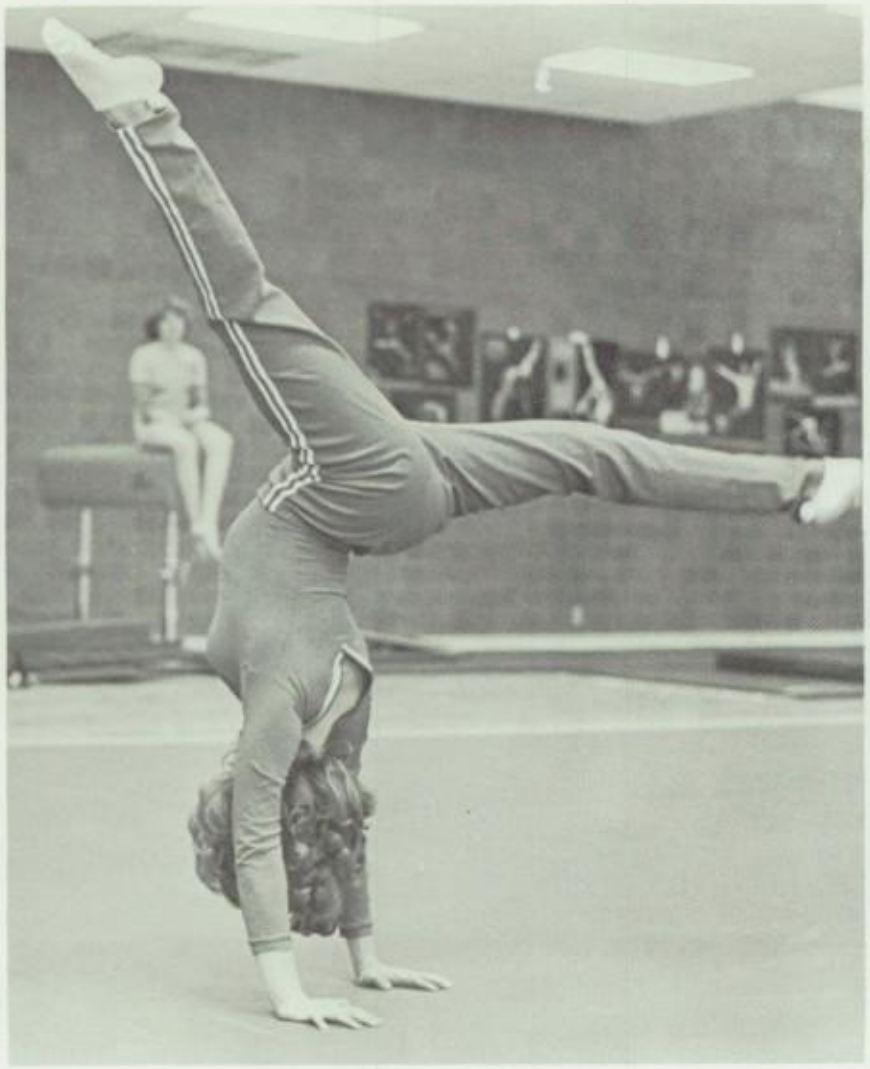
Jeopardy

Never lie. The person next to you might read foot language.

Phyllis Galan had sensitivity plus guts.

After an early fall, the gymnastics team sprang into action. Cindy Sheeran really flipped over the new routines, but Jeanie and Becky Lyman thought them "just the breaks."

The team really fell into things and showed their talent. Mrs. Neville in her "bursting-with-blessings" condition was a good teacher but wasn't much help in demonstrating anything until after March.



Has anyone seen my contact?

Toss the "Sterling" coin, and tales not heads tell on Timpview scholars. Who horses around? not Kipp and he's won the trophies to prove it. Kevin, lost in underground subway to the U.S. Senate Capitol, talks his way out. Debate "ox" does not hold suit for Brett Butler at U. of U. tournament. David's dates bid high for gorillas.

Around the table, deck is dealt-...Sharon cashes in wool suit in sodium hydroxide...Kelly aces Snowbird slopes-...Jenny's tu-tu falls for full house...and ante-up finds Ben's bow in pool-stick case.

Bids get higher, tension builds, and bluffs are called...Paul tosses Nelson chips across library table for AP players-...Doug says, "Hit me with those heavenly bodies"...Nathan shuffles keys to kingdom but draws hearts...And Amy translates toss.

Years Events

AS THE WORLD TURNED, two popes died. (With the new one, Polish jokes went out of style). Nelson Rockefeller, Bing Crosby, Norman Rockwell and other central attractions also died.

Farmers braved the winter to drive on Washington- Maybe their last drive with the threat of an oil crisis.

Inflation, a big problem of the year, sent the price of hamburger soaring to $1.75 a pound. Other questions— new tax laws? Who ran Iran? Which, China or Taiwan?—kept the news busy.

Girls went "coconuts" when Donny got married, but to forget their sorrows, they turned to Grease, Superman, Heaven Can Wait, and Take Down. Some considered the $3.50 ticket and chose to eat their popcorn in front of T.V.'s Mork and Mindy, Battlestar Galactica, Vegas, and Making It (which didn't), or Saturday Night Live with Steve Martin.

Tapes rolled and people freaked for Chic, Queen, Boston, Barbara and the Bee Gees.

Thou wilt not leave us in the dust:
Thou madest man, he knows not why,
He thinks he was not made to die;
And thou has made him: thou art just.

We have but faith: we cannot know;
For knowledge is of things we see;
And yet we trust it comes from thee,
A beam in darkness: let it grow. Tennyson

Thank You!!!!!!!!

. . . yearbook brings memories of:

People accepting challenges, learning how to count copy—letter by letter, sticking on cord and cord and cord, having happy faces or carbonblack hands . . . typing, retyping, and typing one more time . . . wondering who would show up on the day of the deadline . . . arranging pictures with groups of people who would not come or with those who would not stand still . . . deadlines coming sooner than expected.

Lost pictures, lost layouts, lost tempers, gained friendships, ruined dates . . . sleeping in, staying late, selling ads, learning, creating, helping, searching for honors, running out of cord, attacking TV Guides, laughing, discovering, and . . . finally, accomplishing something for someone.

I would like to thank all of the people who made these memories possible, both those on the staff and the others who gave time, ideas, and encouragement to us.

It was really great having English and Seminary with you. I think you are soooo cute and handsome. I wish me the best of luck. See you this summer.

Stephen Bearmon

Paul -
You big jock!
It's been a great year. I hope to see ya after. Have a nice day and Keep up the good work.

Paul,
You are an all around athlete and a stud. See ya this summer.
Scott

PAUL,

YOURE A STUD,
IN EVERY SPORT KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK HAVE
A GOOD SUMMER WITH THE GIRLS.

TROY

P.S.
YOURE VERY BEUTIFUL

Paul,
I didn't know you were such a strange person until this semester. I'm glad to have met you and hope you have a good summer. Maybe now that you're done with school you'll have more time to spend on your tan. Keep up the dark skin. The women love it.

See ya Rosa Ann

Crawfy!
You're such a stud your athletic ability is so good. Remember to support Sigma Tau. Your a good friend
From your Samoan Brother
Lyn Merritt

Paul
I can't believe you're a stud athlete, good luck in your sports and in your calling. Let's play a lot this summer. Keep up the good work.
Have a good summer!
Love Lisa Quinn

Paul -
English was fun, because of you. Thank a lucky cat we only see each other once a week. Have a nice day and keep up the good work.
Love Lisa Quinn

Paul-
It's fun saying Passing by a good luck on Hi- good luck on your track stuff. I hope it can get some classes with you next year. Stop the school will have year-!!
